

NIPUN

in Toronto

Nipun has been in the film industry for a long time and has many awards to her name as a testament to her performances. Seems her films are now catching the eyes of international critics as well, as her last film, "Ekattorer Ma Jononi" has been entered in this year's Toronto International Film Festival. She is now currently in Toronto attending the festival.

FAROOKI'S

No Land's Man

The acclaimed director Mostofa Sarwar Farooki has been responsible for creating lots of fantastic cinemas recently. So good were his productions that they have even been selected in international film festivals, putting him into the international spotlight. With his latest upcoming film, "No Land's Man", he plans to charter into new territory by making this his first International film. This means that casting will include actors and actresses from Hollywood, Bollywood, Tollywood, as well as our own industry. This also means the film will be multilingual so as to cater to the international audience. Also, most of the shooting for the film will take place around the world.

BUSY AS EVER

BIJORI

After a brief stint in Kolkata, Bijori is back and already busy with her projects. Her latest upcoming TV projects include "Kachakacchi" directed by Montasir Bipon, "Mega City Blogger" directed by Abdullah Rana and "Gontobbo Niruddesh" directed by Rahmatullah Tuhin. Other than these, she is also working on a couple of Eid Specials but very selectively. Bijori has been in the media for a long time, but despite that, she still has a strong presence in the media and is just as popular as ever.
