

Amari launches

Amaya Food gallery

On 27 May, 2015 Amari Dhaka inaugurated its signature all-day dining restaurant, Amaya Dhaka Gallery.

Setting a new gourmet scene in Dhaka, Amaya has made its debut with four distinct live kitchens showcasing the finest cuisines from Asia: four-states Japanese cuisine corner, four-states Chinese cuisine corner, four-states Thai cuisine corner and four-states Indian cuisine corner. Amaya is the first restaurant in Dhaka to feature Chinese, Japanese, Thai and Indian dishes under one roof whilst featuring an interactive experience with various live food stations.

Infusing Asian cuisines to produce a premium experience, Amaya is the new escape from the traditional fine-dining concept: it is a new destination that will provide a variety of authentic Asian dishes and celebrate multicultural calendar events with grandeur.

Visit Amaya for the stunning city and lake view, a terrace that can seat up to 220 people. With an arrangement of soft Asian instrumental music, thematic dinner, live cooking and the unique Asian ambience, Amaya is a wonderful getaway to escape from busy life and enjoy an exotic experience unlike anywhere else in Dhaka.

Amaya is open seven days a week from 6.30am to 11.00pm. Guests can enjoy Amaya's buffet breakfast for Tk.1999++, set lunch for BDT1,999++ and dinner for Tk.3,500++. Amaya is available for private events and catering.

Amaya participated in Dhaka Restaurant Week (28 May to 4 June, 2015), offering a lavish buffet of Tk.1499 net. The hotel's Cascade Lounge also participated by featuring two platters, one for Tk.499 another for Tk.999. more information, please call +88 02 55059620 or send an email to

CP beyond borders

There are some delicacies that have crossed borders and have become a hit wherever they went. The menu of the Thailand-based CP Five Star is one such example.

On the side of busy streets, the spicy and enticing crispy chicken, spicy chicken, chicken balls, sausages and nuggets are hard to resist. In Bangladesh, CP started in 2009, with the technology of Thailand and the hint of the local taste.

CP Five Star has outlets in Dhaka, Chittagong, Sylhet, Comilla and Feni. Very soon, CP will reach in all the corners of the country.

Enjoy the spirit of Ramadan at Dhaka Regency

Ramadan is a time of spiritual reflection and worship, where Muslims refrain from eating and drinking during daylight hours. And there is also a lot to savour during Ramadan, with the lavish Iftar cum dinner buffet at Dhaka Regency Hotel and Resort, a new generation business class hotel.

Set in an Arabian theme with its dazzling decor, the hotel and its Grandiose Restaurant are perfect for experiencing the extraordinary meal. Please call 01713332661 to book a table.

The professional chefs of the restaurant have geared up for the occasion with a selection of delicious and traditional dishes from the Far East and the Mediterranean. The menu includes mouthwatering items like kunafah, qatayef, basbousa, shawarma, sambousek, mandi, etc. Aside from this, there will be Bangladeshi items such as chola, piaju, begooni and haleem. This is followed by the grand dinner buffet.

There are also two sets of platters of scrumptious delicacies, which you can eat there or order as takeaways. You can try out their signature platter, suitable for 10-12 persons, called the Sahan-al-Iftar, which comprises of a whole roast of Arabian-style lamb on mandi rice and whole grilled chickens, accompanied with numerous Arabian tidbits and sweets.

Dhaka Regency is also offering you to book, in special discounts, a banquet hall for Iftar events, for corporate or large family gatherings. There are various types of banquet halls. Please call 01713332623 for the reservation since banquet iftar parties at Dhaka Regency are getting booked fast.
