Bangladesh's development has always been thwarted by severe political turmoil. Its people have been paying the price of the never-ending feud between mainstream political parties, with their lives and property. Amidst such a bleak scenario, a new wave of emerging politicians has created a space for new thoughts, promising ideas and a progressive future for the country. Their potential leadership capacity can serve as a powerhouse to bring about the much needed change in our system. To find out more about their policies, aspirations and dreams about a better Bangladesh, check out this week's Spotlight on pages 8 and 9.
