Ctg auto-rickshaw drivers overcharging

Allege commuters

SHAHADAT HOSSAIN, Ctg

Accusing the drivers of CNG-run auto-rickshaws of overcharging commuters in defiance of government rules, the Passenger Welfare Association of Bangladesh in Chittagong city has demanded authorities' intervention to stop the arbitrary increase in fares.

In a statement on Tuesday, the association said the drivers did not use meters and had not been following the government-fixed fare chart for more than three and a half years.

For a 3km ride, Tk 100-120 is being charged, while as per the government chart, updated in January 2011, the fare is Tk 25 for the first 2km and thereafter Tk 7 for every additional kilometre along with a waiting charge of Tk 1.25 per minute, it said.

Mohammad Babu, who works at a private organisation, said the fare for a ride from Cheragi Pahar to Prabartak area should be around Tk 50 but they were forced to pay Tk 70-80. The authorities should stop this, he said.

Haider Azam Chowdhury, president of Chittagong District and Chittagong City CNG-run Auto-rickshaw Malik Chalok Oikya Parishad, acknowledged that the drivers charged extra in the morning and evening when there was a shortage of public transports.

But due to an increase in gas prices, the 2011 fare chart cannot be maintained, he said, demanding a revision of it.

Haider said they conveyed the demand to Road Transport and Bridges Minister Obaidul Quader during a meeting in Chittagong city on Wednesday and proposed that the fare should be Tk 35 for the first 2km and thereafter Tk 10 for every additional kilometre along with a waiting charge of Tk 2 per minute.

Govt develops model to ensure easy services

UNB, Dhaka

The government has developed a model to simplify the existing process to deliver public services to the citizens aimed at saving their time, money and labour.

Access to Information (a2i) Programme has developed the model titled "Service Process Simplification (SPS)" following the internationally recognised Business Process Reengineering (BPR) model to change the conventional system to deliver public services to citizens.

Making the disclosure at the concluding day's session of a five-day training programme on 'Managing Technology for eGovernment' in the capital on Thursday, a2i Project Director Kabir Bin Anwar said, "Initially, we're going to simplify the process to grant pension for the primary school teachers who have to frequently visit the department concerned and spend money to get pension."

Organised by Leveraging ICT for Growth, Employment and Governance (LICT) Project of BCC and A2I of Prime Minister's Office, the event was addressed, among others, by BCC Executive Director SM Ashrafur Islam and LICT Project Director Md Rezaul Karim.

eGovernment Component Team Leader of LICT project Tarique M Barkatullah and Communication Specialist Ajit Kumar Sarkar were present.

Anwar said it is possible to make the process easier and save time, labour and money to grant pension by eliminating at least 15 steps from the existing 21 steps required to grant pension for the primary teachers.

The government has a plan to introduce SPS model for granting pension for all government employees in the future if it functions smoothly and successfully in case of primary school teachers, he added.
