

STYLE ICON

SALMA HAYEK

In keeping with the theme of the Cannes Special Issue, we decided to choose this week's Showbiz Style Icon from the list of celebrities who were present at this year's Festival du Cannes. As you can already imagine, that is not an easy job as the festival was jam-packed with some of the best and most glamorous artists across the world. Even so, we have decided to make Salma Hayek this week's Style Icon. She was one of those artists who have been present in the festival from day one. As you can imagine, the pressure to look good is immense and she has managed to wow her admirers every single day with her drop dead gorgeous looks, magnificent physique and her stylish outfits. She has been in the industry for a long time now, but none of her charm and sizzle shows any sign of diminishing.
