At the Bay View

Neatly tucked in the middle of the port city, the most recent addition to the famed Chittagongian hospitality - Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View at S S Khaled Road, Lalkhan Bazar - provides service that is truly of an international standard.

A bird's eye view from the hotel gives a glimpse of the township that is growing at a fast pace, and with a central location, within walking distance of the Chittagong Club Limited and the M A Aziz Stadium, Radisson Blu is at the hub of this vibrant, sea-side metropolitan city.

Chittagong has been a centre of trade because of its proximity to the maritime port, since time immemorial. The city is also a major tourist destination and Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View aims to cater to the needs of both their corporate clients, as well as the local and foreign tourists.

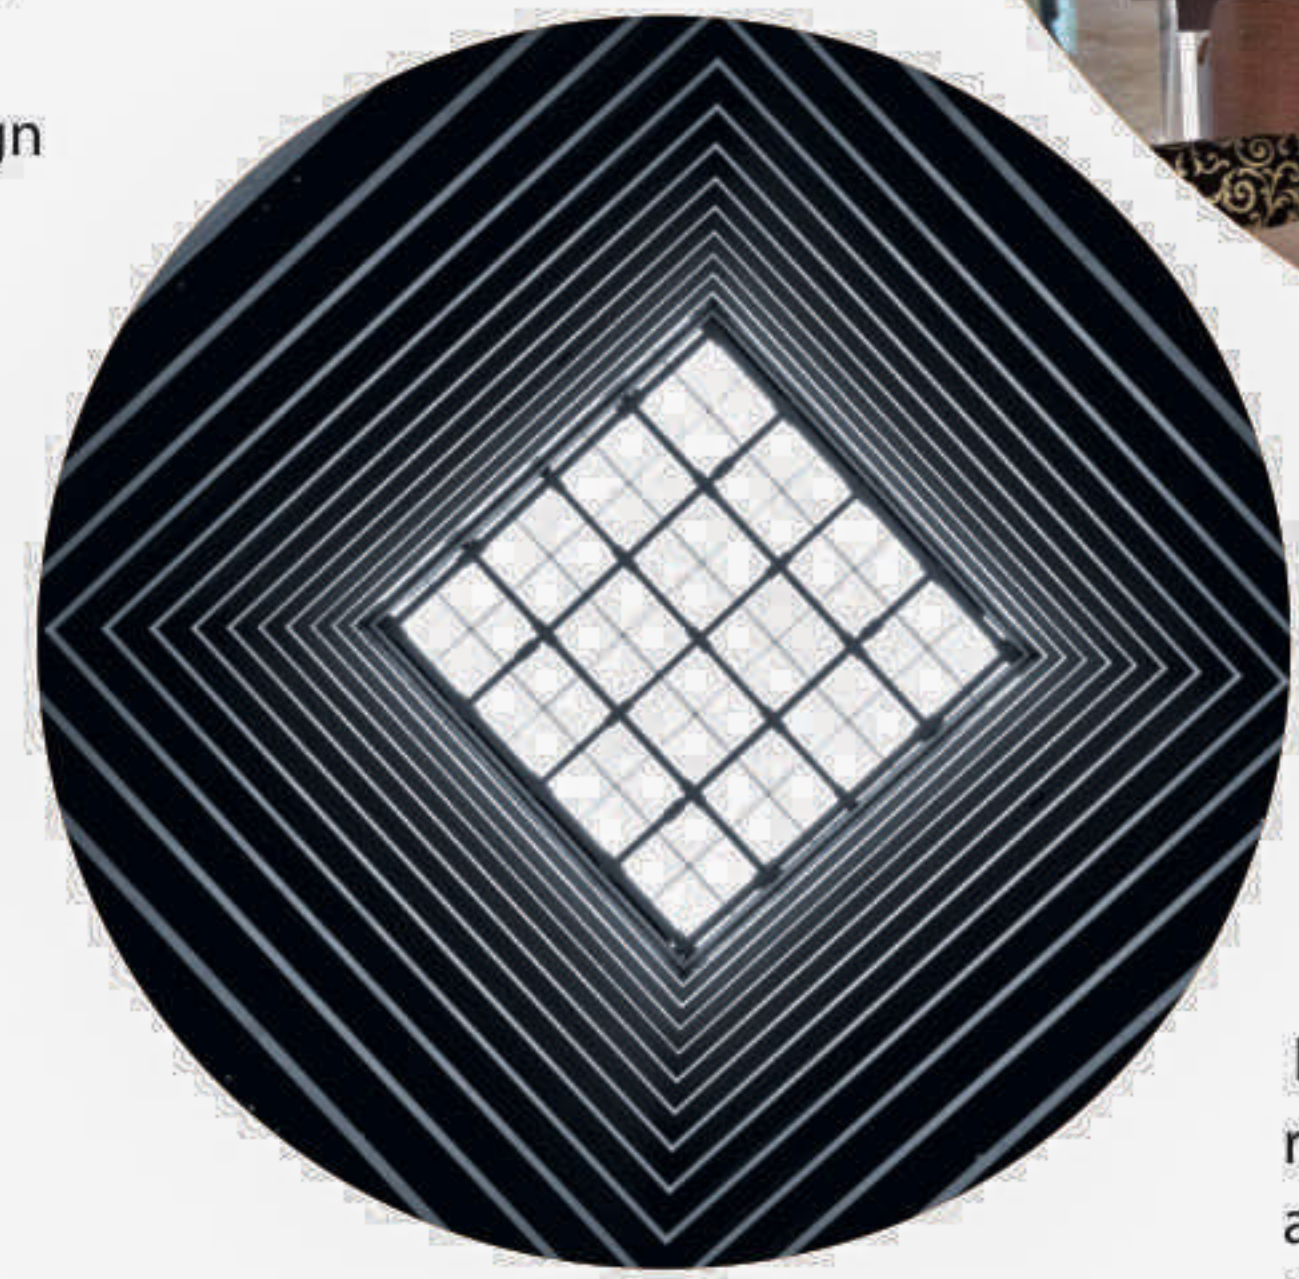

With new business ventures being devised by stakeholders at the policy making level, the need for international standard hospitality centres at the port city will only increase, and Radisson is already there to cater to this growing demand.

For people managing the hotel, making key decisions or simply looking into the everyday nitty-gritties, the staff uphold the motto that it's the little things, the small gestures that make the difference between a memorable stay at a 5-star from a mundane one.

Whether it is the complimentary refreshment that you might not have expected or the welcoming voice at the helpdesk, you can expect a warm greeting and experience hospitality during your entire stay at the hotel.

The twenty-first century netigen, the global traveller - corporate or otherwise - prefers to remain abreast of the latest developments around them and Bay View offers exactly that. Deluxe amenities include high-speed, wireless Internet and LCD televisions with cable channels.

impart a memorable five-star experience. To ensure quality services to all clients, the Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View maintains two handicap-accessible Superior Rooms that are available upon request. The suites, of course, offer added comfort and services catering to a selected clientele.

Their Junior, Royal and Presidential Suites are sophisticated, roomy and offer extensive amenities reassuring state of the art solutions; an added advantage which every client availing these services will be looking for. This makes the suites ideal for business or extended stays in the port city of Chittagong.

Located on the 16th floor, the Business Class Lounge is available to guests staying in Business Class Rooms and all suite types. The space is ideal for low-key client meetings.

The 240 odd guest rooms, classified as Superior and Business Class, offer options for a luxurious stay and
