

Their stunning ballroom, the Mezban, is a lavish 950 square metres of pillar-less space that is one of the ideal locations in the city for gala conventions, banquets and weddings alike. The hall provides 950 square meters of functional space and can comfortably accommodate around a thousand guests.

After a hectic day of business negotiations, you may want to relax and unwind and on that the Chittagong Bay View offers unmatched services: a tennis court, an infinity pool, a game room and a spa. Offering a long list of services, each assuring 100 percent relaxation, and an escapade from the traitorous ordeals of everyday, Spa Esc is the city's best physical centre.

If you are health conscious, the modern equipment at the gym is there for you. You can avail services from the gymnasium, which will ensure that you get to maintain your regimen even when away on that business trip or just enjoying a plain and simple vacation.

If dumbbells do not seem probable, break a sweat at the tennis court and share a memorable time with family or business associates. If you want to brush up your swimming skills, why not enjoy a few laps in the dazzling outdoor swimming pool on the sixth floor.

A review of a hotel will forever remain incomplete without a word on their gustatory offers. And to wind up words on Radisson Blue Chittagong Bay View would be an injustice without mentioning their culinary prowess?

Under the strict eyes of the head chef, who cares to share a joke or two at the Live Cooking Stations, the chefs at the hotel provide a wholesome meal for their clients 24/7. The Exchange, the all-day buffet restaurant, has already claimed its stake as the best buffet in town and hopes to give restaurants across the country a run for their money. Try their signature breakfast and you will surely return for lunch and dinner. Their extensive array of cuisine and the high standard maintained throughout make the scrumptious meal at the Exchange a memorable one. Mezzetto, servicing authentic Mediterranean cuisine exudes a cosy feeling and the ambiance will surely entice you to engage in a prolonged conversation with family and friends while having a wholesome meal. The food, the cocktail, the buzz, and the music—it all makes Mezzetto a truly contemporary, sophisticated experience.

On a more familiar frontier, Holy Basil, is a restaurant that conceptualises the blend of Southeast Asian cuisine, with an urban, street food twist. And if you want something closer to the heart, why not give Bornil a try. This eatery serves authentic Bangladeshi cuisine alongside the offshoots that have emerged from it. Diners here will enjoy the food and the culinary traditions that are drawn from Bangladesh's rich history and geography.

Saving the best for the last, the Port Bar & Deli with lavish sofas and chairs is a wonderful space for casual business meetings and social meals. What steals the show is the grand piano neatly tucked, which reverberates familiar romantic numbers in the evening. As the only deli in Chittagong, Port sells homemade delicacies such as coleslaw, various cold cuts, imported sirloin steak, rack of lamb, freshly baked breads, cakes and pastries.

Inside your room, as you draw the curtains, the skyline of a bustling metropolis unfold before you. Radisson Blu Chittagong Bay View is an experience. They think out of the box and run the extra mile in giving their clients a wonderful feeling, which they will be able to take back home and cherish for a long, long time.
