

Female overseas jobseeker 'raped by brokers' in Savar

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

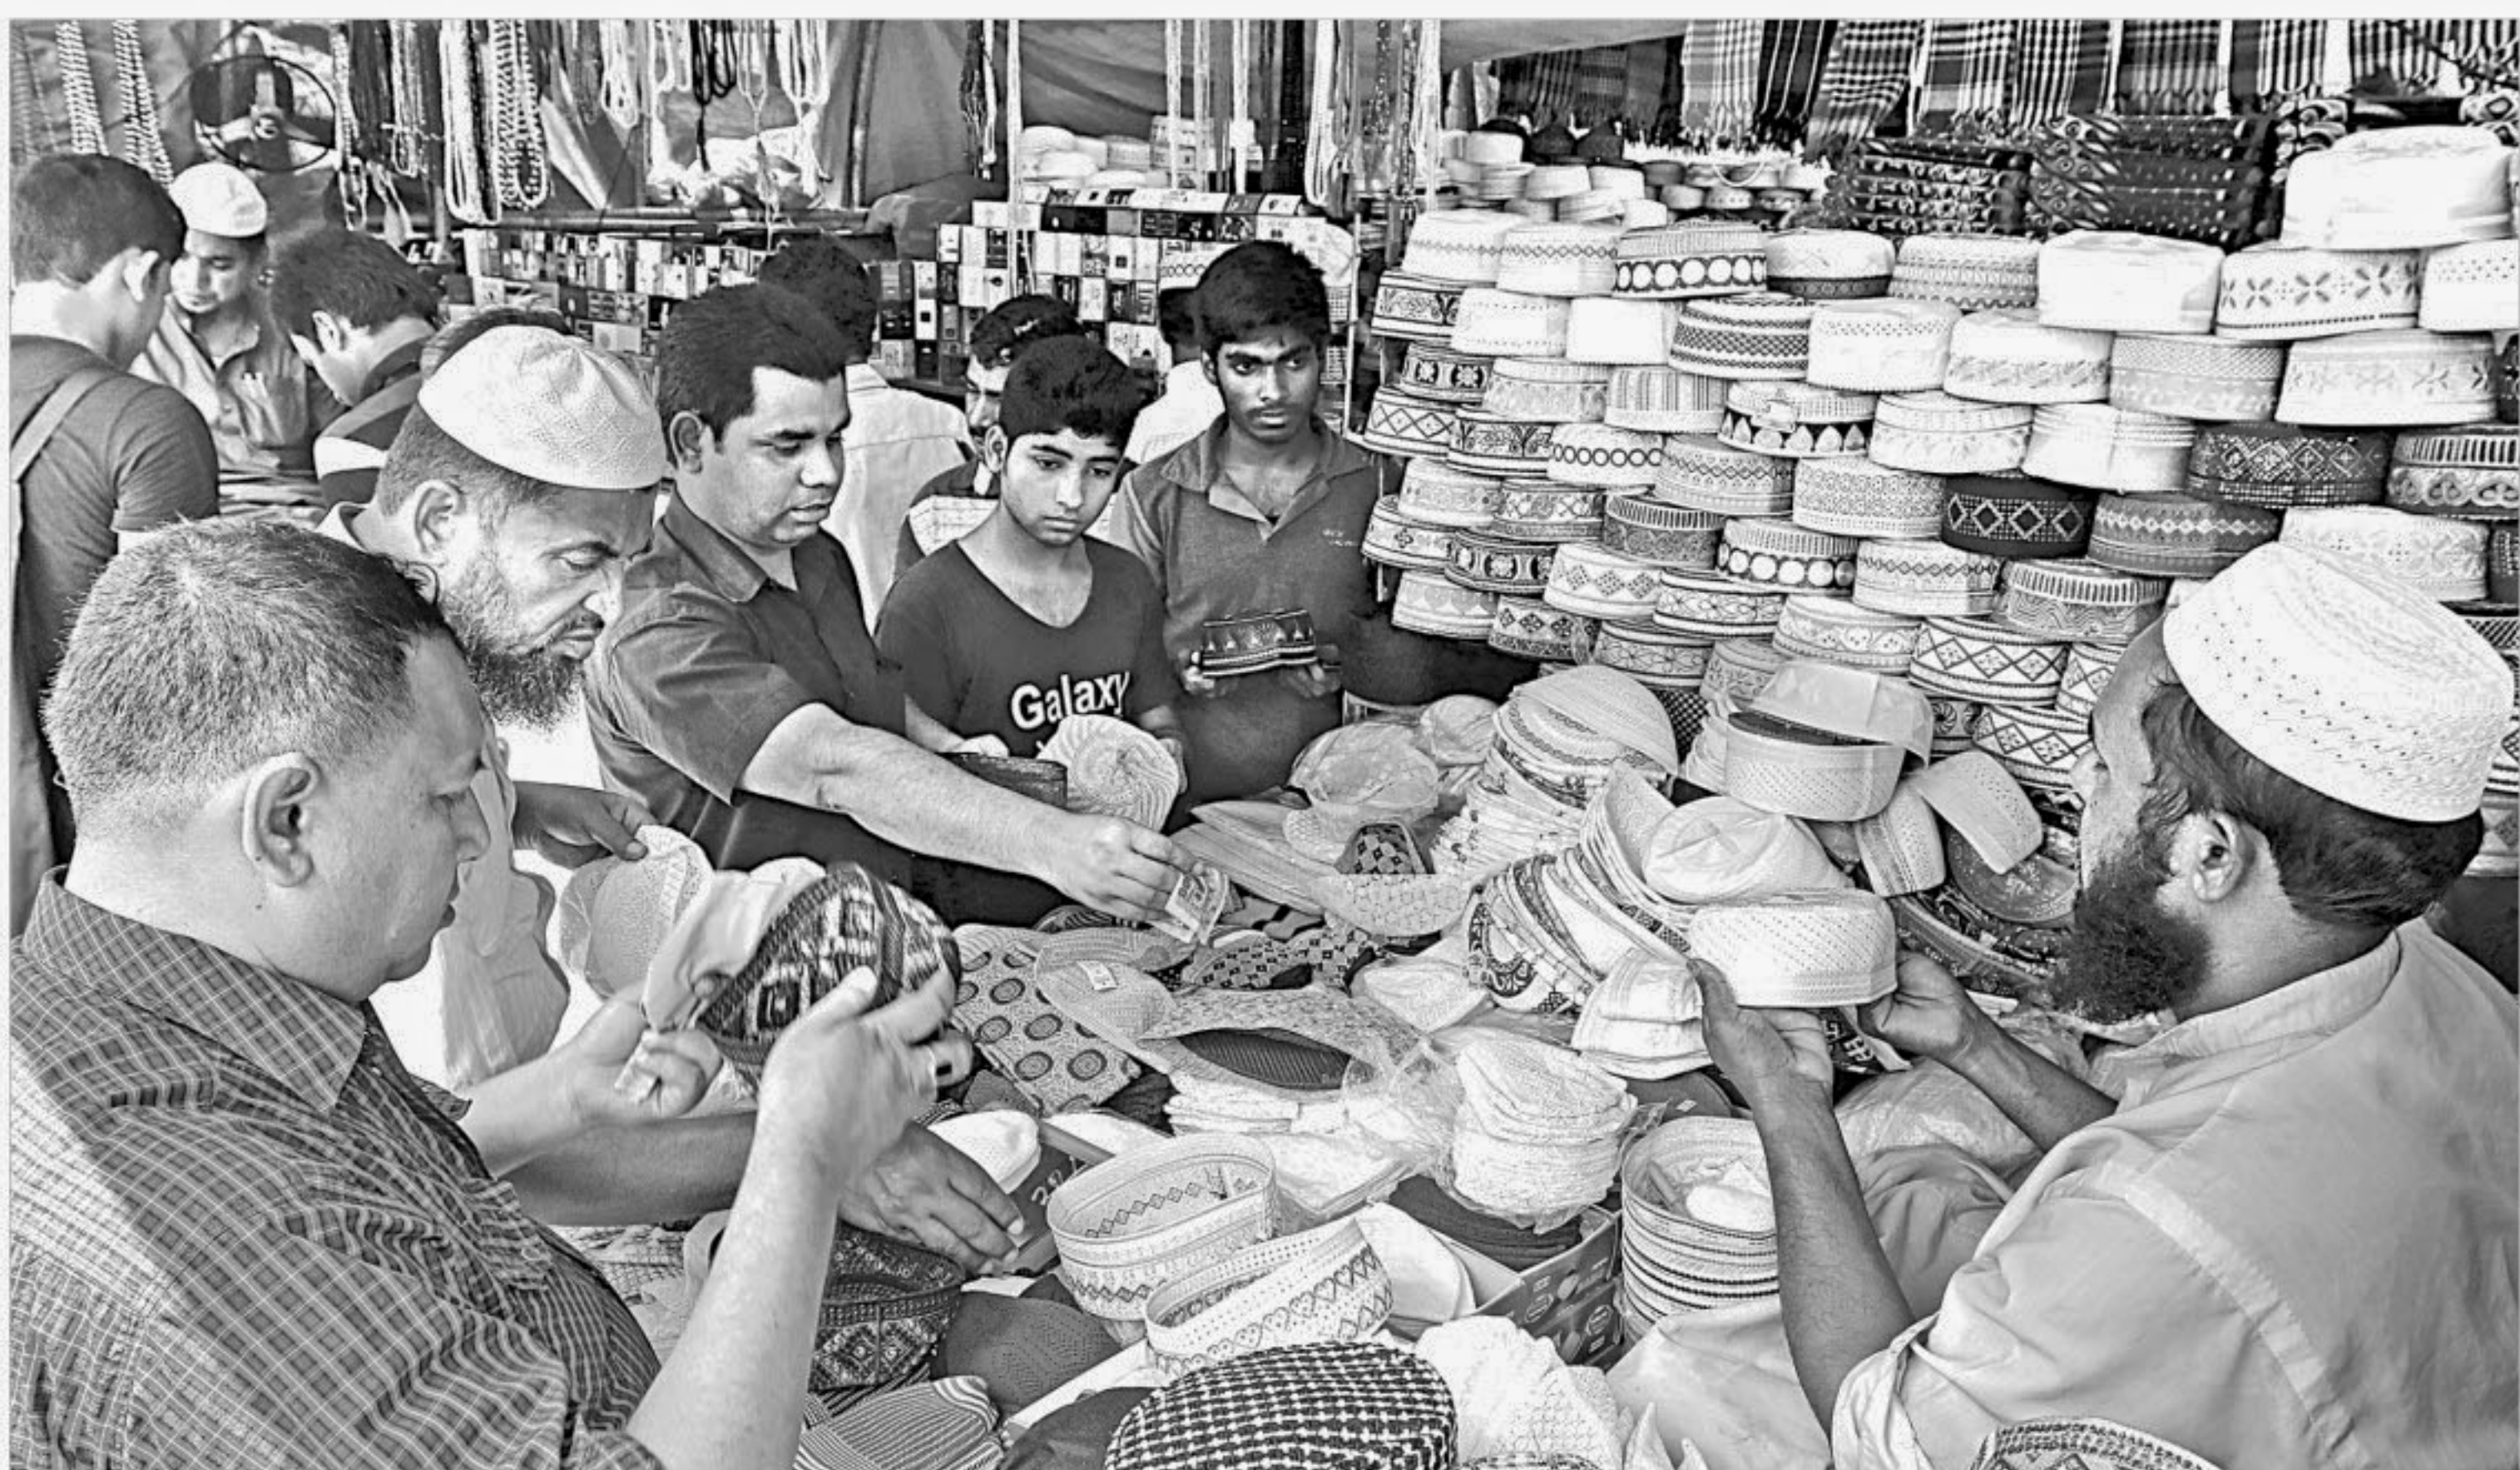

A female jobseeker was allegedly raped by brokers in Vakurta of Savar on Wednesday night.

Residents of the area found her tied up, unconscious beside a brickfield and informed police.

The 25-year-old victim from Jessore is receiving treatment at Dhaka Medical College Hospital, said police. She filed a case with Savar Model Police Station accusing two people.

According to the case statement, she paid Tk 2 lakh to one Sanaul Miah for a job in Dubai. She met up with him in Vakurta area on Wednesday evening when he raped her.

SM Kamruzzaman, officer-in-charge of the police station, said they were looking for the accused.

With the advent of Ramadan, shops such as this one selling prayer caps before the Baitul Mukarram national mosque in the capital are seeing a boon in business as wearing the headgear is customary among believers of the subcontinent. The photo was taken yesterday.

UK House of Commons discusses Bangladesh

ANSAR AHMED ULLAH

The lower house of UK's parliament on Wednesday discussed different issues relating to Bangladesh including the latter's commitment to secularism and the murders of four bloggers in the last two years.

Responding to the MPs at the House of Commons, Minister of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Office Hugo Swire said the 440,000-plus people of Bangladesh origin in the UK made an enormous contribution to British society. That is why the government will continue to work closely with Bangladesh on its democratic path, he said.

Hugo Swire said the murderers of the bloggers must be brought to justice and Bangladesh's government must be unequivocal in protecting those who speak up.

Pointing out the attacks on minorities since the International Crimes Tribunal in February 2013 handed a life sentence to a leading Jamaat-e-Islami figure for war crimes in 1971, Conservative MP Mark Feild called for protection of the 20 million Hindus, Buddhists,

According to the CCC, at present 1,033 billboards are illegal in the city.

21 doping gang members jailed

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Twenty-one people belonging to gangs that dope people and then rob them were sentenced to different terms in jail after being arrested in different places of the capital in the last two days.

The Detective Branch (DB) of police arrested them in Jatrabari, Shahbagh, Dhaka University, and the High Court area. The sentences range from six months to two years, said DB Deputy Commissioner (South) Sajjadur Rahman, who directed the raids.

Executive Magistrate Md Moshir Rahman sentenced the arrestees, he told a press briefing at the DMP media centre yesterday.

Detectives also recovered strong sedatives -- Dormicum, Milam and Ativan -- from the arrestees.

These gangs dope people at bus stands, rail stations and other crowded public places by giving them food mixed with sedatives ahead of Ramadan and Eid, said Sajjadur Rahman.

Over the last few days, around 50 victims were treated at Dhaka Medical College Hospital, said hospital sources.

12 Jessore 'War Criminals' Probe report provided to prosecution

Defence places closing arguments for 2 of 3 'Bagerhat Razakars'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

International Crimes Tribunal's investigation agency yesterday handed over to the prosecution a report on its probe on war crimes allegations against 12 persons of Jessore, including ex-BNP and Jamaat-e-Islami lawmaker Shakhawat Hossain.

Investigation officer Abdur Razzak Khan submitted the 42-page report, witnesses' statements and other documents, prosecutor Zead Al Malum told The Daily Star.

If those are found to be satisfactory, the prosecution will submit formal charges to initiate trial, he said.

Completing their probe, investigators on June 14 said they found "evidence" of crimes against humanity the 12 allegedly committed during the 1971 Liberation War.

They were said to be involved in killing two persons, raping one and torturing two others in Keshabpur of Jessore in the Bangla month of Ashwin (between mid-September and mid-October).

Of the 12, four including, Shakhawat, 61, now involved in Jatiya Party politics, are in jail. The remaining arrestees are Billal Hossain Biswas, 75, of Nehalpur village; Akram Hossain, 59, of Bhalukghar Mollapara; and Ajihar Morol, 64, of Chingra village.
