

STYLE ICON
BIPASHA

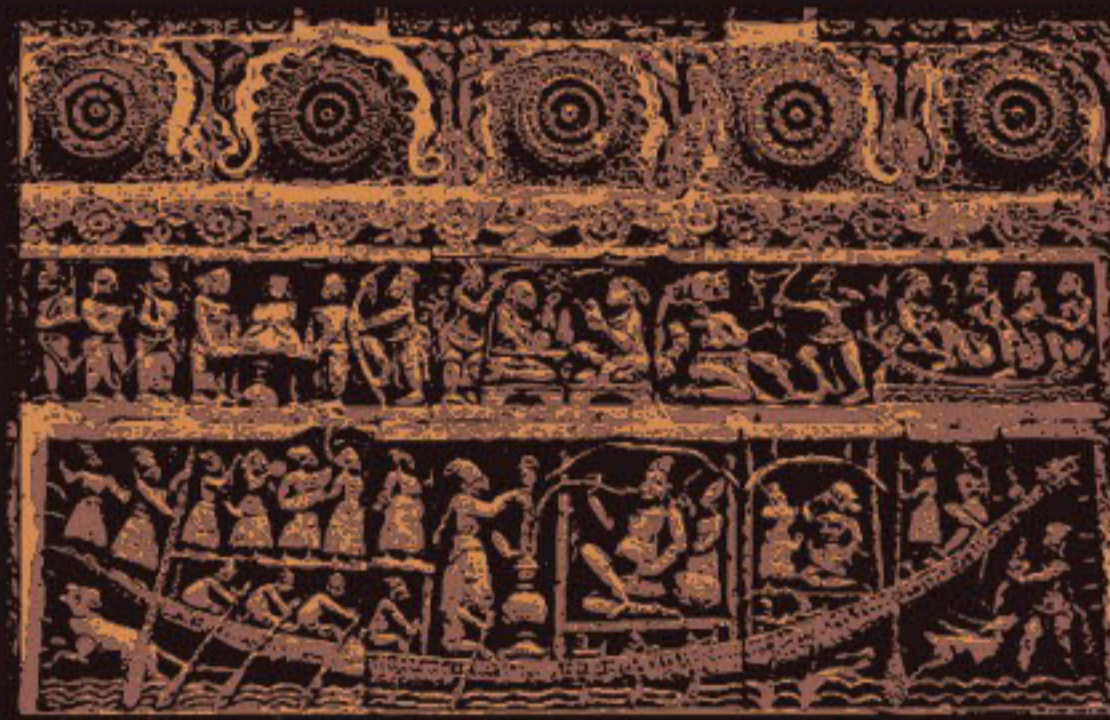

Bipasha Hayat earned her name during the Golden Age of Television. She isn't just a pretty face either as she studied at the Charukola Institute and now focusing on being an artist. She isn't like our usual Style Icon picks as she isn't very experimental in regards to fashion. She will always sport the traditional Bengali wear such as saris or kameez but despite that, she still manages to steal the show. Her unique styling and captivating talents makes her this week's Style Icon.
