Gayeshwar gets bail in arson case

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday granted ad-interim bail to BNP leader Gayeshwar Chandra Roy for six months in a vandalism and arson case.

Police filed the case last December on charges of vandalising and setting fire to the car of Netrakona-1 lawmaker Chhabi Biswas and preventing law enforcers from discharging duties at Dhaka Medical College Hospital. He however could not be released from jail since he was arrested in two other cases, his lawyer told The Daily Star. The HC also issued a rule upon the government to explain why he should not be granted regular bail in the case.

The court ordered law enforcers to submit a report by August 1 on execution of the arrest warrant.

dumping and discharge of waste into the Karatoa river in Bogra and Gaibandha, reports our Bogra correspondent.

It issued a rule asking the authorities to explain in four weeks why they should not be ordered to take necessary steps to protect the river from encroachment and pollution and restore its natural flow.

It also directed the government to submit within a reasonable period an environmental impact assessment report on a sluice gate in Khulshi at Gaibandha's Gobindaganj after taking comments of the public. In the rule, it also sought an explanation from the authorities, including the land

secretary and Bogra mayor, why they should not be directed to demarcate the river as per a survey of 1940-49 to protect its 116kilometre area.

It also sought an explanation on why they should not remove the sluice gate to ensure the natural flow at all times and not bar encroachment and dumping and discharging of waste from all sources.

The bench of Justice Mirza Hussain Haider and Justice AKM Zahirul Hoque came up with the order and rule after hearing the petition filed by Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers Association (Bela) on June 18 seeking necessary orders.

Tobacco taxing process to end up favouring makers

Prof Abul Barakat tells press conference

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Noted economist Abul Barkat yesterday said the proposed budget had increased tax on tobacco a little but it would eventually go in favour of multinational and local tobacco companies because of the taxing process.

"What do we get in the proposed 2015-16 budget? If I speak in our finance minister's language, though I don't want to, it is 'rubbish'," he said, adding that the proposed taxation would not reduce tobacco consumption and not increase the government's revenue.

"Our proposal was to ease taxation on cigarettes but it has been made complicated in the proposed budget. It is part of evil politics. The complicated taxation layers will help tax evasion. The government will be deprived of tax and the companies will get advantage."

He was addressing a press conference on "post-budget reaction and recommendations on tobacco tax" at the capital's Jatiya Press Club, organised by Human Development Research Centre (HDRC), Progga, Anti Tobacco Media Alliance, and Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids.

of Tk 15 to Tk 36, and as a result, companies could easily switch to the lower layer, thus reduce the price of cigarettes and avoid higher tax. For example, if 10 cigarettes of a certain brand cost Tk 20, the company will have to pay 76 percent tax. But when the company, changing the brand name, sells the same 10 cigarettes for Tk 19, then it will have to pay 64 percent tax because the difference between two layers in the proposed budget is only Tk 1.

The difference between these layers in the past budget was Tk 16.

The Dhaka University professor proposed that the number of the layers should be reduced to three from four, and the government should fix the taxation layers at Tk 40, Tk 60, and Tk 100 -- which are the prices of every 10 cigarettes.
