

As usual different areas in Chittagong city became waterlogged after three consecutive days of rain. There have been many reports and photos published in the media about improving the drainage system of the city to mitigate waterlogging, but every year the situation remains unchanged during rain. The photo was taken yesterday in Agrabad area.

Lebanon launches hotline for female domestic workers

STAR REPORT

Lebanon has launched a 24-hour hotline, 1740, for female domestic workers to allow them to report abuse or mistreatment and receive help, Arab News reported on Tuesday.

The country hosts over 200,000 migrant domestic workers, according to the International Labor Organization (ILO), employed under the "Kafala" sponsorship system which binds them to their employers, thereby rendering them vulnerable to exploitation.
