

MILA'S Back

We have heard rumours about her upcoming album for quite a while now, but it seems that long awaited album is finally on its way. Dubbed "Uncensored", it's planned to be released on 7th July through Digital and CD release. Mila took the music scene by storm back in 2006 and has been a consistent crowd favourite ever since.

PORIMONI'S Beauty Through Sandalina TVC

Porimoni's talent and beauty isn't anything new to any of our readers. Despite her short time in the industry, she has become one of the busiest actresses in the country. Her face can be seen plastered on posters and newspaper sections all over the city. Now however, Porimoni has found another way to present herself to her adoring fans; Television. She has recently appeared on a TVC for Sandalina Sandal Soap, the perfect choice for those seeking the most exquisite and beautifying soap. This TVC demonstrates once again on how talented but more importantly how beautiful she is.
