People gather at a camp of Garati enclave in Panchagarh Sadar upazila on Monday as officials arranged a seven-day programme for their registration.

PANCHAGARH ENCLAVES

26 more people opt for Indian nationality

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

Twenty-six inhabitants of 23 Indian enclaves in Boda upazila of Panchagarh district expressed their desire to become Indian nationals during the second day of a 10-day joint survey by India and Bangladesh on Tuesday.

Earlier 40 inhabitants of the Indian enclaves inside Panchagarh wanted to become Indian nationals during the first day of the survey on Monday, said Shahin Reza, executive magistrate and in-charge of the control room set up for the survey work.

So far, 305 people including children have got their names registered during the two days, he said.

Eighteen camps were set up for running the survey-related activities in a total of 36 enclaves inside the district.

According to the 2011 census, the enclaves in Panchagarh cover around 11,900 acres of land with a population of 19,043.

There are 111 Indian enclaves in Bangladesh, including 59 in Lalmonirhat, 36 in Panchagarh, 12 in Kurigram and four in Nilphamari districts, and 51 Bangladeshi enclaves in Cooch Behar district of Pashchimbanga in India. The Indian enclaves in Bangladesh comprise 17,149 acres of land while Bangladeshi enclaves in India cover 7,110 acres.

A joint census conducted in July 2011 found 37,334 people living in Indian enclaves in Bangladesh and 14,215 people in Bangladeshi enclaves in India.

Man gets life for killing girl after rape

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

A Pabna court yesterday sentenced a man to life imprisonment for killing a girl after rape in Sadar upazila in 2005.

The convict is Abdul Momin, 32, son of Jamat Ali of Bhajendrapur village in the upazila. The court also fined him Tk 1 lakh.

Judge Gazi Rahman of Women and Children Repression Prevention Tribunal pronounced the verdict in a crowded court room.

The judge also acquitted another accused, Abdus Salam, as charges brought against him could not be proved.

According to the prosecution, Momin raped Shrifat Khatun of the same village and then strangled her on June 12, 2005. Shrifat's father Lalu Pramanik filed a case with the Pabna Police Station the following day, accusing Momin and Salam. Police later pressed charges against the two.

After examining the case record and evidence, the judge found Momin guilty and sentenced him to life imprisonment, said Public Prosecutor advocate Abdus Samad Khan Ratan.

Away in Gaibandha, a seven-year-old girl, who was stabbed in an attack at Dakkhin Hatibandha village in Sundarganj upazila of the district on Tuesday, died at Rangpur Medical College Hospital (RMCH) yesterday, reports our correspondent.

Quoting locals, police said one Alam Badsha of the village borrowed Tk 2000 from his neighbour Lal Mia. Despite repeated requests for the last two years, Badsha did not repay the money.

On Tuesday around 12:00 noon, Lal Mia along with his daughter Monika went to Badsha's house and asked him to repay the money.

As he denied paying the money back, an altercation took place between the two. At one stage, Badsha stabbed Monika with a sharp weapon.

Monika succumbed to her injuries at RMCH yesterday.
