

STAR WEEKEND

in other news

July 10, 2015

A BREAK FROM THE CAPITAL

SHAHAN HASNAEN

PHOTO: PRABIR DAS

As the Eid holidays get closer, our beloved Dhaka city becomes evermore hectic. Though it is getting quite hard to live in the gridlocked, shopping frenzied city, we are accepting it with a smile in anticipation of the cherished ooliday and festivities at the end. After spending Eid with friends and family, here are a couple of places you can visit to make your last days of the weekend worthwhile. If you commute everyday in the city, you know how much you need a break from the chaos! Read our spotlight on pages 8 and 9 to find the ideal places to spend your vacation in.

INSIDE

STORIES FROM THE STREETS

Read the stories of people coming from all over the country to Dhaka to make a living during Ramadan.

14

THE MUCH NEEDED ALERT

Read about the creation of a prototype of a wireless networking system to detect earthquakes and warn people by a group of students from American International University Bangladesh.

4

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Reflects the abuse of trademarks in the restaurant industry and the need for protecting intellectual property rights.

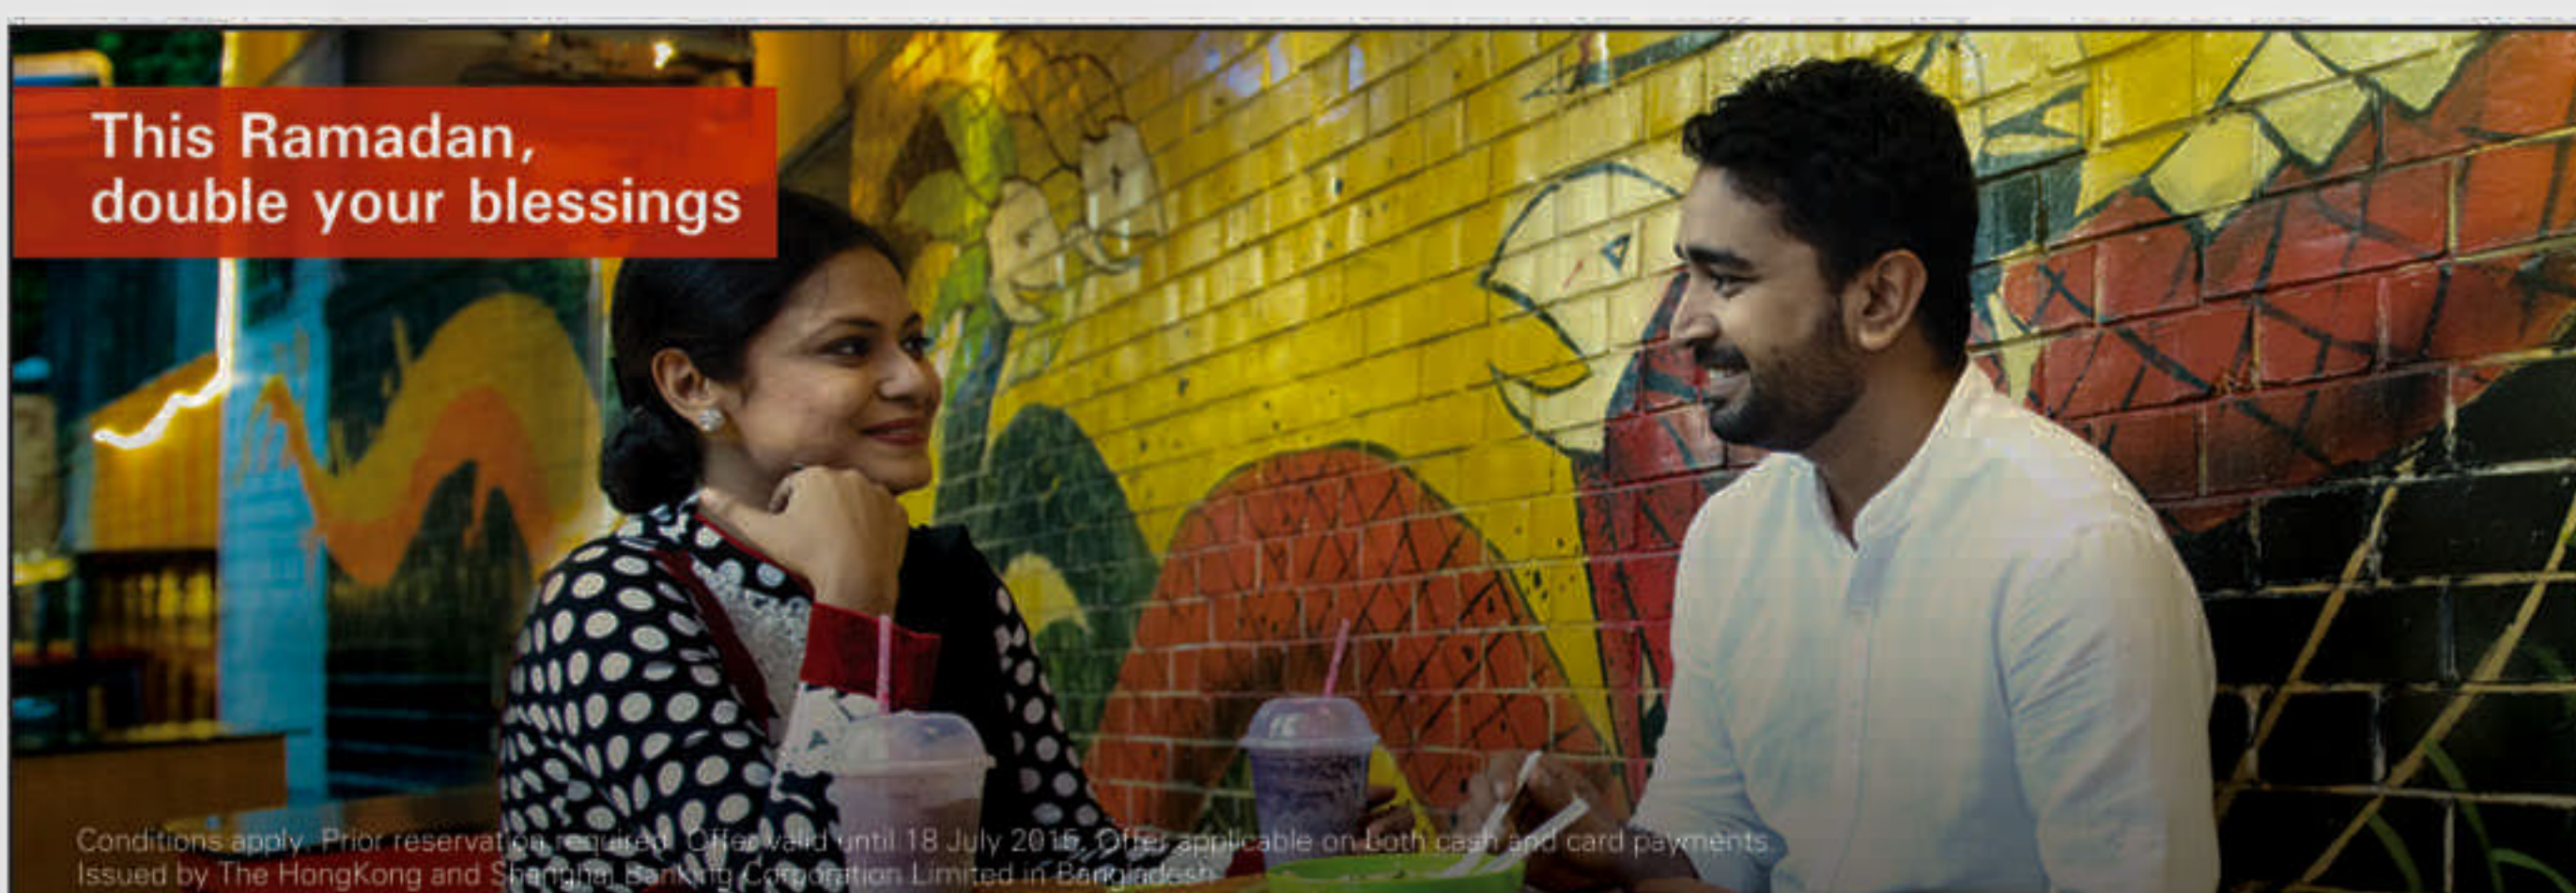

12

THE NAKED SADHU

Talks about the life and philosophy of Lokenath Bhramachari, one of the greatest Sannyasis the world has ever witnessed.

11

This Ramadan,
double your blessings

Enjoy our Iftar deals and submit the receipt to help a disadvantaged child.

Buy One FREE + New toy donated on each purchase receipt*

For reservation, please call: Dhaka Regency (01713332661), Long Beach Suites (01755 657940), Hotel Sakina (01982700700), The Peninsula Chittagong (01755554579)

HSBC

Conditions apply. Prior reservation required. Offer valid until 18 July 2015. Offer applicable on both cash and card payments. Issued by The HongKong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited in Bangladesh.