

Overwhelming Demands: AGNEE 2

Agnee 2, the highly anticipated sequel to the hit Mahiya Mahi starrer Agnee, was released this Eid with much fanfare. Everyone knew it would be a blockbuster but boy, we weren't even close. The movie has become such a hit that theaters around the country are adding in around 6 show times to cope with audience demand whereas normally there are only 4. The movie was produced under Jazz Multimedia and directed by Iftekhar Chowdhury and co starred Kolkata actor Om.

FROM ONE PLAYING FIELD TO ANOTHER: Imrul Kayes

Imrul Kayes the national cricketer is now venturing into the world of media with his first appearance in a TV Drama called "Full Kumari". The drama was directed by Jamal Uddin and he will be acting alongside veteran actress Bijori Barkatullah as well as Intekhab Dinar, Nadia, and others. After making a name for himself in the sport, the star player has now set his sights on the media industry.

SALMAN SHAH honoured this Eid

With his untimely death back in 1997, he has left a dark cloud over the film industry. His charismatic acting and good looks made him a mega star back in the days, a status many have not yet managed to garner. To pay tribute to this incredible actor, a program called "Salman Shudhui Salman" was aired this Eid on Ekushey Television which featured many of his iconic song and dance numbers recreated through new talents in the industry such as Shohan, Rothi, Neerob, Mehjabeen, Shohag, Toma Mirza, Zayed Khan and Peya Bipasha.
