

GRAPE

VINE

DOUBLE IMPACT MOUSHUMI HAMID

Famous TV actress Moushumi Hamid seems to be stepping into the silver screen with the upcoming release of two separate films. First to be released will be "Black Money" on 7th August and directed by Shafiuddin Shafi. The second film "Black Mail" will be released on 14th August and directed by Ononno Mamun. These films mark her first entry into the film industry after working on TV channels since her introduction into the industry through the Lux Channel I Superstar pageant. Other than these two, she is also currently signed onto eight other films.

We demand
Justice For Rajon

DOCUMENTARY FOR CHILD ABUSE

The brutality and suffering endured by the teenage boy Samiul Alam Rajon is still fresh in the minds of citizens both here and abroad. To create awareness against such violence, G.M. Shoikat is making a documentary to tell the story of Rajon and hundreds of others like him who go through such brutality on a daily basis. As a further act of kindness by the director, the money that this documentary will make will go straight to Rajon's parents.

A DAY WITH LINKIN PARK

A Bengali amateur music director is about to live the dream of millions of musicians worldwide as he has won a one-day workshop training with Linkin Park in their studio. Zayed Hassan, who has worked with other musicians online, has won the first prize in the Stagelight Monthly Music Contest, an event organized by Open Labs, LLC. and Linkin Park with promotional partner Guitar Center. His workshop training will involve all knowledge regarding music such as mastering, editing etc. For those of you who don't know about the contest, The Stagelight Monthly Music Contest is a year-long contest hosting original compositions from emerging talent all over the world, created in the flagship music creation software, Stagelight.

