

Smart nat'l ID production begins next month

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

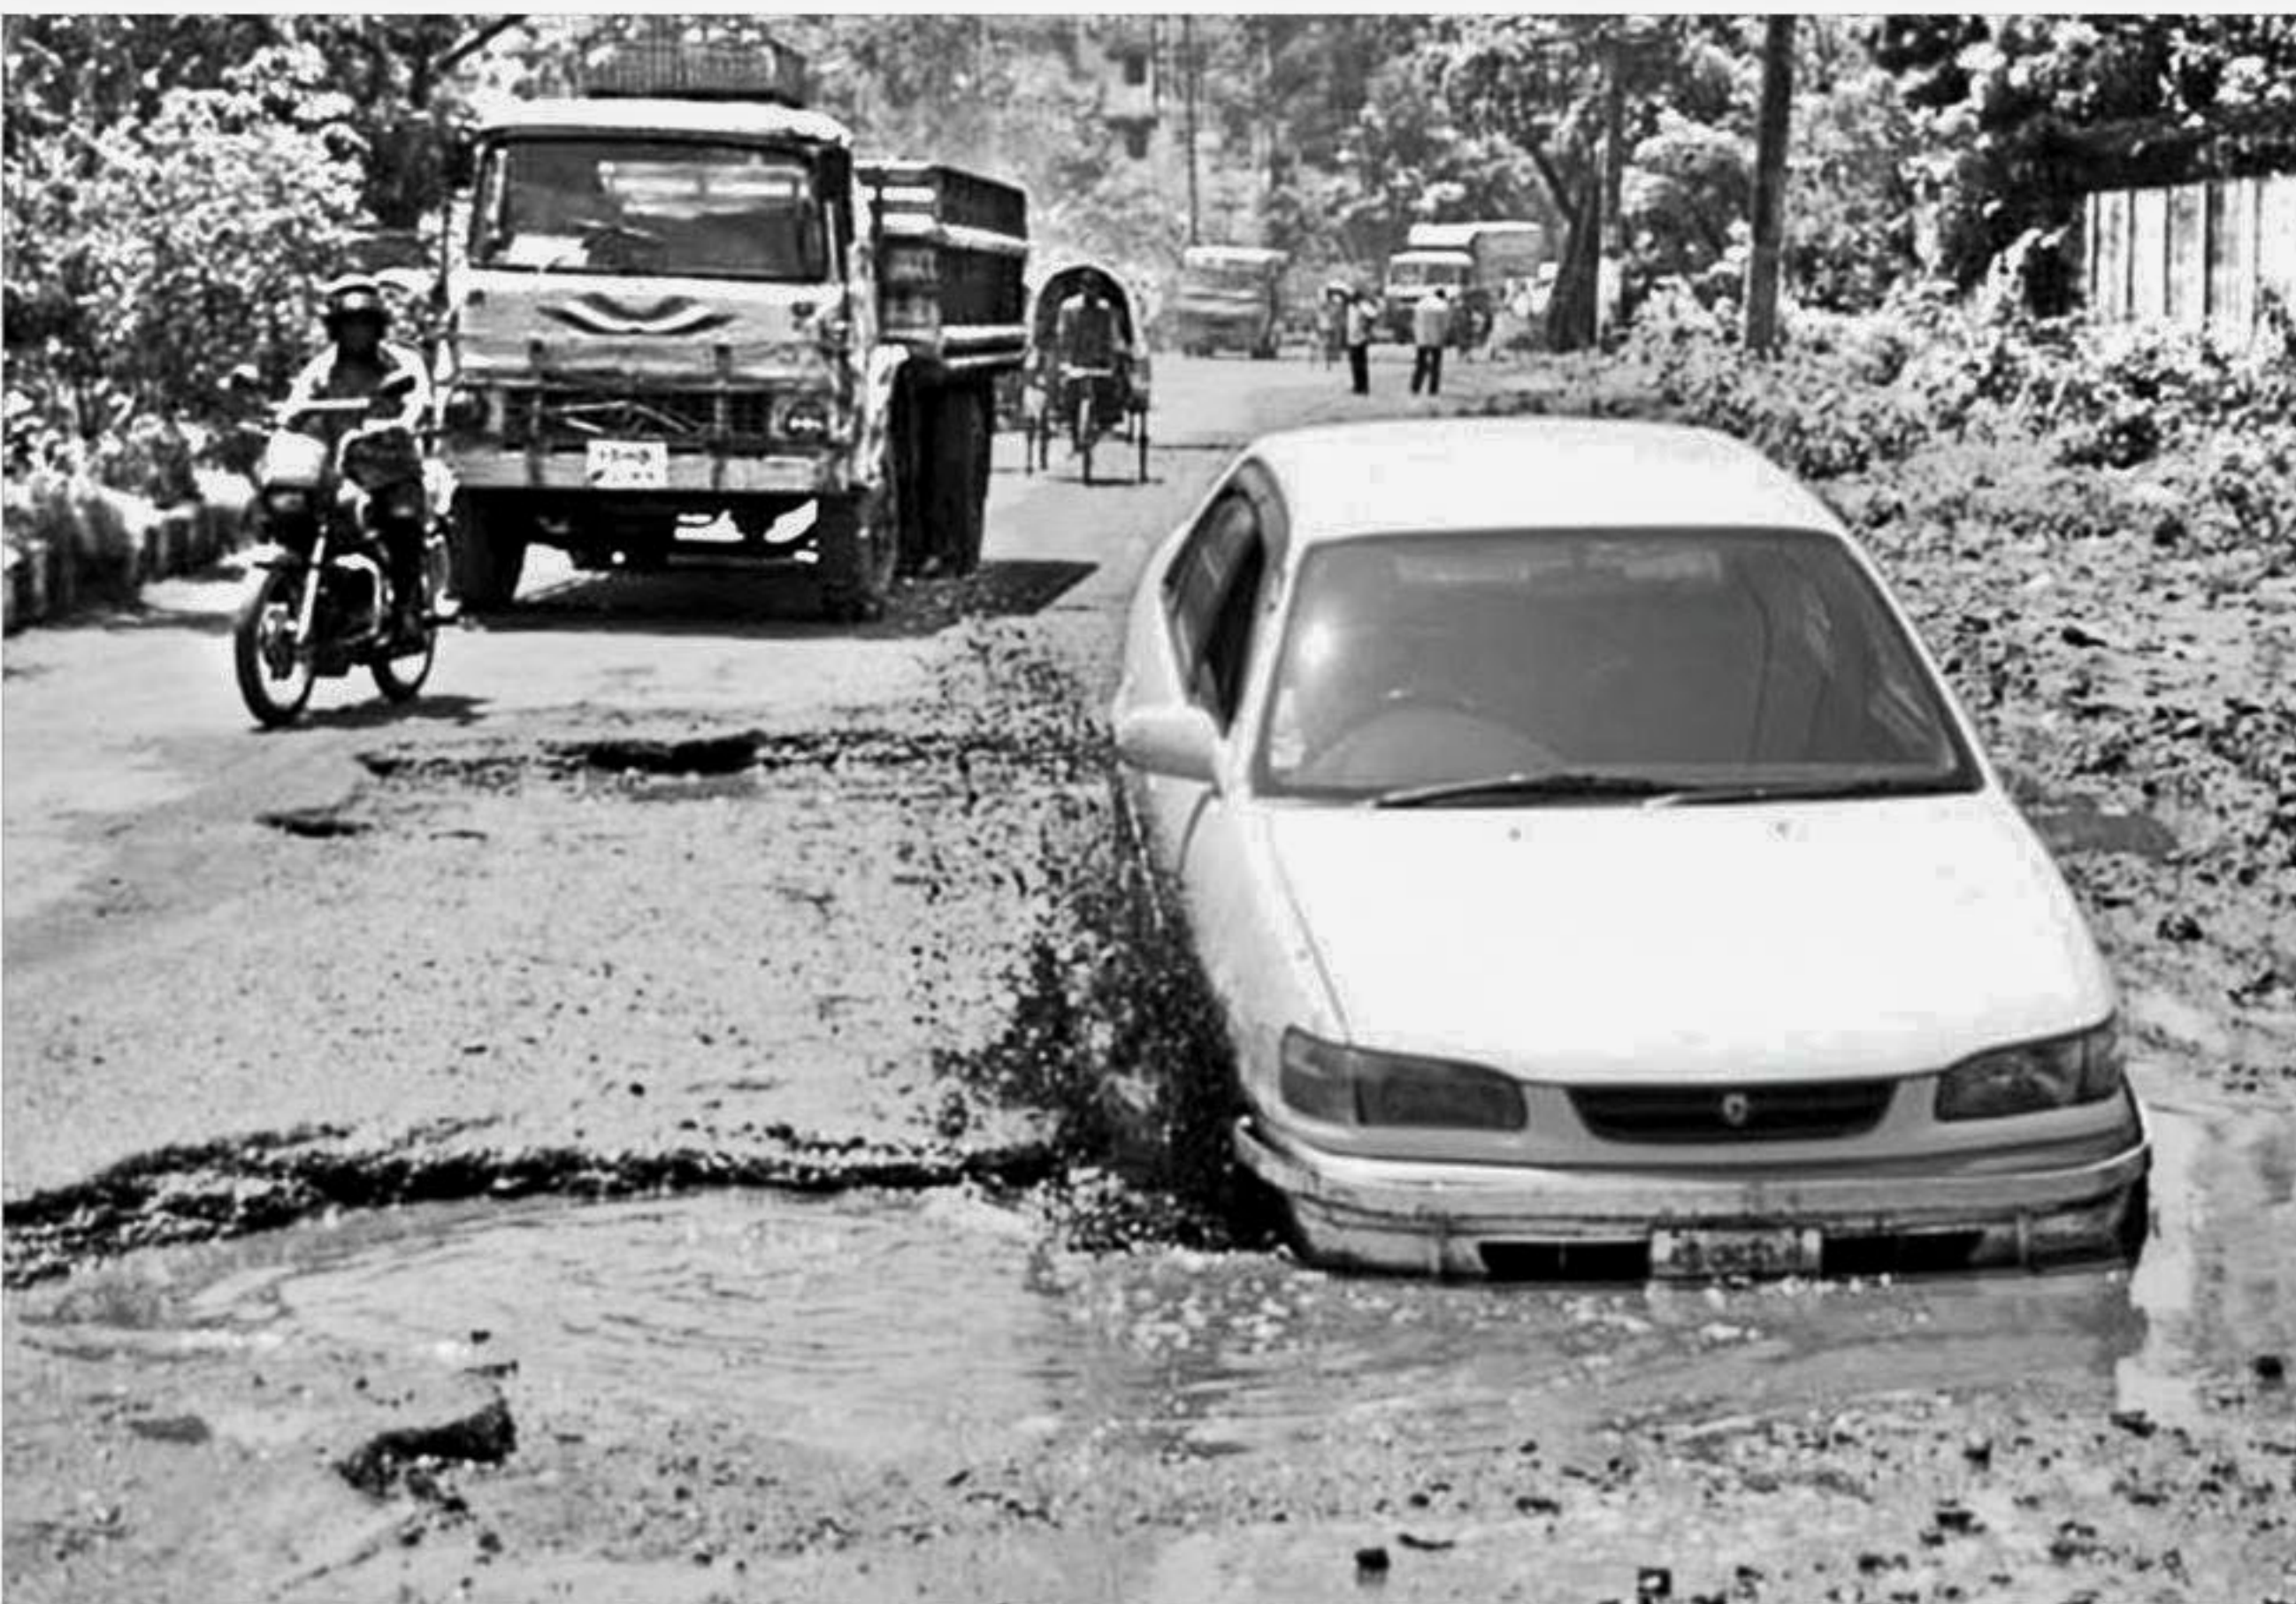

The Election Commission will start producing smart national identity cards (NID) by the start of next month for distribution among voters for free.

The people living in Dhaka and its adjacent districts will get the cards first and people of other regions later, Election Commissioner Shah Nawaz told journalists at his office at the EC Secretariat in the capital yesterday.

However, the EC did not mention any tentative timetable for starting the distribution.

There are over 9.62 crore voters in Bangladesh. Of them, smart NID cards will be prepared for 9.20 crore

Samaritan sacrifices life to save street child

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A garment worker was crushed under a train during his attempt to save a child playing on the rail tracks in the capital's Banani yesterday afternoon.

The deceased, Suman Mia, 40, worked at Madona Fashions Ltd in Banani.

Noticing a child on the rail tracks, Suman managed to push the child aside while the Dhaka-bound Silk City Express ran him over, according to the victim's co-worker Harun, and police.

He was declared dead at Dhaka Medical College.

HC asks govt to stop illegal cutting of hills at Pahartoli Mouja in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the government to immediately stop unauthorised cutting and destruction of hills at Pahartoli Mouja under Chittagong City Corporation.

Responding to a writ petition filed by Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers' Association (Bela), the court also issued a rule asking the government to explain in four weeks why cutting and destroying hills should not be declared illegal and why it should not be directed to prevent such activities. The organisation recently submitted the petition saying that the local ward councillor has been illegally cutting and damaging the hills in Pahartoli

Government has no right to threaten Adivasis

Says Dr Mizanur visiting Jhimai Punjee

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Moulvibazar

Referring to allegations that Khasis in Moulvibazar's Kulaura upazila were being pressurised to leave their lands, National Human Rights Commission Chairman Dr Mizanur Rahman yesterday said the administration had no right to threaten or put pressure on indigenous people.

"If somebody does so, they would have to be accountable in the future," he said while visiting Jhimai Punjee at the district's Jhimai tea estate.

Dr Mizanur termed it a failure of the government, saying that otherwise Khasis would not have felt threatened.

Sanjeeb Drong, general secretary of the forum for the indigenous peoples of Bangladesh; Prof Mesbah Kamal, coordinator of the Parliamentary Caucus on Indigenous Peoples; and Father Joseph Gomes, Bangladesh Poribesh Andolon vice president, were present.

Man held over death threat to Mayor Annisul

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) yesterday detained a man for allegedly giving a death threat to Dhaka North City Corporation Mayor Annisul Huq.

Md Nahid Happy, 41, was arrested with 121 Yaba tablets and a mobile phone near the FDC gate in the capital's Tejgaon around 4:40pm, said Maj Maksudul Alam, deputy director of Rab's Legal and Media Wing.

An unknown caller introducing himself as "Imam Mohaki" threatened the mayor on July 14, Rab said.

A general diary was later filed with Gulshan Police Station.

The Rab official said interrogation revealed that the detainee was a drug addict and extorted people by threatening them over the phone for a long time.
