DHAKA-CTG HIGHWAY IN SITAKUNDA
Drivers want to ply 3-wheelers till 2pm

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Owners and drivers of CNG-run auto-rickshaws in Chittagong yesterday requested that they be allowed to ply their vehicles from 6:00am till 2:00pm on the Dhaka-Chittagong highway in Sitakunda upazila.

Several hundred drivers and owners gathered in front of the residence of Chittagong-4 (Sitakunda-Pahartali) lawmaker Didarul Alam in Chittagong City Gate area and sought the additional time until an alternative solution was presented.

On August 6, Road Transport and Bridges Minister Obaidul Quader said CNG-run auto-rickshaws can use highways from 6:00am till 8:00am for refuelling at roadside stations without carrying passengers.

Md Faruk Hossain, president of Chattagram Auto-rickshaw Auto-tempo Sramik Union, Akbar Shah unit yesterday said, "The lawmaker assured us that he would talk to the minister in this regard."

However, when contacted, Didarul Alam said the drivers and owners sought two more hours for plying the street, and that he would make the request to the minister.

The government banned three-wheeler auto-rickshaws and other slow-moving and unfit vehicles on highways with effect from August 1.

Mizan also criticised law enforcers for misbehaving with victims of different incidents.

He specially cited the incident after the torturing of Samiul Alam Rajan to death by a group of brutes who accused the 13-year-old boy of "theft" in Sylhet on July 8.

"Rajan's father told me that police pushed him to the ground when he went to the police station to file a case after the killing," he said. "Such attitude of law enforcers must be ended."

About the Liberation War, Mizan said issuance of certificates to fake freedom fighters had turned into a business these days. It must be stopped in honour of the real freedom fighters, he said.

Talking about the new book, Professor Emeritus Anisuzzaman said it would help people know about the accurate history of the Liberation War.

The writer, Prof Abu Sayeed, and noted columnist Syed Abul Maksud also spoke.
