

THIS SIDE OF THE HORIZON

'Tanguar Haor' is one of the most beautiful haor (wetlands) in the north-eastern part of Bangladesh, near the border area of Sunamganj and Meghalaya. The mesmeric wetland is full of diverse people and wildlife. The landscape of Tanguar Haor are painted by three major seasons — summer, monsoon and winter. Every season paints its own beauty on the haor. The endless water body and the horizon make me realise how tiny we are in this grand universe. Yet it's somehow relaxing when one is on a boat, enchanted by the view.
