Ctg kids demand end to child murder, repression

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Kids in Chittagong yesterday formed a human chain demanding justice for child victims, who were killed recently, and urged all to stand up against child repression and murder.

Members of Sishu Kishor Mela and Surya Sen Pathaghar, two voluntary organisations works for children, organised the human chain in front of Nasirabad Government High School at 11:00am.

Speakers said child killing is increasing alarmingly. Besides, children are not getting a safe environment to

Woman's body found in Ashulia

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

Police recovered the decomposed body of an unidentified woman from a rented room at Baipail in Ashulia, outside the capital, yesterday.

Quoting the house owner, police said a man and the woman identifying them as a couple rented the room on August 10. Yesterday morning, the house owner informed police of a bad odour coming from the room which was locked from outside since Wednesday.

Police said the woman might have been killed by the

NATIONAL MOURNING DAY OBSERVATION Clash between AL units in US causes embarrassment

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

A group of unruly activists of the ruling Awami League astonished all and embarrassed diplomats and guests at the National Mourning Day programme in Bangladesh Embassy in Washington DC on Saturday when they got involved in clashes.

Witnesses said Virginia state unit's AL

General Secretary GI Russel and Washington Metropolitan AL Vice-President Sadek Khan were detained at that time.

They said a Washington unit Jubo League leader was injured when hit on the head by a chair during the brief clash.

The embassy authorities called Washington police who then intervened

BADDA TRIPLE MURDER Police claim to have identified killers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Police yesterday claimed to have identified some killers of three Badda men in the capital.

On Thursday night, some Awami League supporters and leaders were discussing the programme of National Mourning Day when three to four people came out of the blue and started shooting in Adarsha Nagar Water Pump area. Four persons were injured in the gun attack and of them Shamsuddin Molla, an AL leader, Mahbubur Rahman Gama, a Swachhchasebak League Dhaka city's (north) leader, and AL supporter Feroz Ahmed Manik, later died. Police did not disclose the names of the killers for the sake of investigation but hoped that they would arrest them.
