6 jailed for 20 years

Verdict in two cases delivered 23 years after the death of at least 76 children

EMRAN HOSSAIN and CHAITANYA CHANDRA HALDER

The Dhaka Drug Court yesterday handed down three directors and three employees of a now-defunct pharmaceutical company 20 years of imprisonment and fined Tk 4 lakh each in two cases for producing and marketing toxic paracetamol syrup.

The cases were filed by the Directorate General of Drug Administration (DGDA) in 1992 against BCI (Bangladesh) Ltd for using cheap, poisonous Di-Ethylene Glycol in two batches of its paracetamol syrup called Paracem that killed at least 76 children.

An HC order, however, stayed proceedings of the cases in 1994, which resumed in 2011.

"The prosecution has proved the charges against the accused," Drug Court Judge M Ataur Rahman said, reading out the verdict.

They are sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment and fined Tk 2 lakh each in a case, said the judge.

The court's Public Prosecutor Shaheen Ahmed Khan said convictions in CASE UNDER ICT ACT Journo Probir sent to jail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Faridpur court yesterday sent journalist Probir Sikdar to jail in a case under Information and Communication Technology Act, for "tarnishing the image" of LGRD Minister Khandaker Mosharraf Hossain.

Local Awami League leader Swapan Kumar Paul filed the case on Sunday after Probir in a Facebook post said his life was under threat and that the minister, businessman Moosa bin Shamser and condemned fugitive war criminal Abul Kalam Azad would be responsible if he were killed, police said.

Police produced the journalist before the Chief Judicial Magistrate's Court in Faridpur, seeking a 10-day remand. But the court sent Probir, 55, to prison and may hear the remand petition today, court sources said.

During yesterday's proceedings, however, no lawyer stood for Probir in the court. His son Suprio Sikdar said they requested a number of lawyers to represent his father but no one dared do so, fearing reprisal from "influential people".

"I have enough reasons to be apprehensive given the way police picked up my father. Besides, despite relentless efforts I could not get a lawyer to defend my father in the court," he told The Daily Star.

Deadly Bangkok blast kills 19

Thai minister says perpetrators intended to destroy economy, tourism

BBC ONLINE

A bomb exploded close to a shrine in the centre of Thailand's capital, Bangkok, yesterday killing at least 19 people and injuring more than 120.

The Erawan Shrine, which was crowded at the time, is a major tourist attraction and foreigners, including Chinese, are among the casualties.

No one claimed responsibility for the attack.

Defence Minister Prawit Wongsuwan said the bombers had "targeted foreigners... to damage tourism and the economy".

"We will hunt them down," he said.

The Nation TV channel quoted Prime Minister Prayuth Chan-ocha as saying the government would set up a "war room" to co-ordinate its response.

National police chief Somyot Poompummuang said that 10 Thais had been confirmed dead, along with one Chinese and one Filipino.

He said: "Whoever planted this bomb is cruel and aimed to kill. Planting a bomb there means they want to see a lot of people dead."

Thai police said 123 people had been injured. The government in Hong Kong said three of its residents were among those wounded.

The explosion occurred at about 19:00 local time (12:00 GMT).

The Bangkok Post quoted police as saying that 3kg of TNT had been stuffed in a pipe inside the shrine and that an electronic circuit suspected to have been used in the attack was found 30 metres from the scene.

BBC's Jonathan Head, who was one of the first journalists at the scene, said there was a huge amount of chaos, with body parts scattered everywhere.

This is a very well-known shrine, next to a five-star hotel, and that people around it were hit by the full force of the blast, he said.
