

MUSA FIR

releasing
THIS EID

Ashiqur Rahman's "Musafir" is about to grace the silver screen and guess who's the star? You guessed it. It's the Bengali heart throb Arefin Shuvo himself. The film will also feature co-star and newcomer actress Marjan Jenifer. Arefin has managed to carve out quite a space for himself despite the short time he has been around in the industry. The film will be released the coming Eid so Arefin fans don't miss out.

TISHA RETURNS IN GULBAHAR

Stories featuring strong female characters are still a bit rare but thanks to a current three part series TV Drama, that scenario is being abolished. The original was called "Ratargul" was featured none other than the beautiful Tisha. The story showed Tisha's character suffering through many hardships that was leading towards death. The second series, "Kalagul", portrayed Tisha's character overcoming her ordeals. The latest instalment in this series, dubbed "Gulbahar" will feature Tisha once again and will be aired this Eid on Banglavision. The director for this instalment is Shumon Anowar and will co-star Mamunur Rashid, Dilara Zaman, Fazlur Rahman Babu, Iresh Zaker and others.

SHABNUR'S back

After a 2 year hiatus, Shabnur is coming back to the silver screen with her new film "Pagol Manush". The movie originally started production 3 years ago, but with the untimely death of the film's director M. M. Sarkar, production was halted. Now it's resumed again, helmed by director Bodil Alam Khokon. Fans of Shabnur can rejoice as this squashes all rumours of her leaving the industry.
