

Sanjida Preeti is one of the most popular young models and award winning television actors in Bangladeshi entertainment, having created her base in theatre. She started working at a very young age, not only as a television and theatre actor but was also involved in singing, dancing and modelling. She has been a part of some big productions such as Sporsher Baire, Kachher Manush, Doll's House, Poush Faguner Pala and is now one of the leading stars in Doll's House 2. The Star Weekend got the opportunity for a quick chat with Sanjida and found out some fun facts about the gorgeous actor.

What are three of your favourite possessions?
My principles, my mentors and my hair

What is your favourite midnight snack?
Anything that is fried or baked!

Name your top three favourite books.
Gorbhodharinee, Durbeen, Pheluda Shamogro (three is not enough!)

If you had the chance to play any role in any movie, which role and movie would they be?

Too many. But I would love to be the next Wonder-Woman in Marvel's "Avengers"!

What is your motto in life?
Live and let live.

What would you do with a million dollars?
Keep it in my drawer until I figure out what to do.

What advice would you give to young aspiring actors?
Actors are everywhere. Try to be an artiste.
