Woman immolated by husband

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinaipur

A woman was immolated allegedly by her husband in their house at Nawabganj upazila in Dinaipur on Thursday night.

Monjurul Islam, of Soraipara village, had an altercation with his wife Mitu Begum, 22, on suspicion that she was talking to some guy over the phone and at one point burnt her pouring kerosene, claimed Mitu's father Mahburur Rahman.

But Monjurul claimed that Mitu committed suicide during their quarrel.

Mitu died at Rangpur Medical College and Hospital, and police sent the body to the college morgue for autopsy.

Jamalpur mayor suspended

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jamalpur

Jamalpur Municipal Mayor Shah Md Wares Ali Mamun has been suspended from his mayoral post.

The suspension order came after a court accepted charges against Mamun, who is now on bail, in the cases filed over violation of law and order in the name of political movement, Jamalpur Deputy Commissioner Shahabuddin Khan said.

A fax message of suspension order from LGRD ministry reached his office on Thursday night, he added.

However, Mamun, also District Unit secretary of BNP, said the cases were filed out of political vengeance to remove him from the post.

He will appeal to the High Court challenging the order, he added.

Trawler capsized kills one, hurts 10

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Moulvibazar

A woman died and 10 people were injured as a trawler capsized in the Sonai River in Madhabpur upazila of Habiganj on Thursday.

The deceased was Firoza Begum, 40, of Madhabpur municipality.

Police said the trawler carrying 15 passengers sank in the mid river and most of the passengers managed to swim ashore. However, the reason behind the incident could not be known.

On information, a rescue team rushed there and recovered the body.

Young man jailed for stalking girl

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangpur

A mobile court yesterday sentenced a man to six months' imprisonment for stalking a college girl in Chhatua-Bhagabanpur village under Pirganj upazila of Rangpur yesterday.

Faruk Hossain, 24, of Santoshpur village had been stalking the girl, an honours first-year student of Rangpur Carmichael College, for a long time, said police. Villagers caught Faruk red-handed in front of the victim's house and handed him over to police.

About 500 vehicles have been waiting at Shimulia Ghat as ferry services on Shimulia-Kawrakandi route at Munshiganj have been at a halt for eight days due to a navigability crisis in the Padma river. However, Chinese company Sinohydro Corporation started work yesterday to remove the problem.

Man held with smuggled gold at Dhaka airport

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Airport Armed Police Battalion arrested a man with 30 gold bars, worth around Tk 1.75 crore and weighing around 3.5kg, at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport yesterday.

Detainee Rafiqul Islam, of Comilla, arrived from Saudi Arabia on a Saudi Airlines flight, said APBn officials. Following his suspicious movement at the parking lot, APBn members searched his body and found the gold bars.

Woman's hanging body found in Bogra

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bogra

Police recovered the hanging body of a woman in Hashkhali village under Dhunat upazila of Bogra on Thursday evening.

The deceased was Nilima Rani Mondal, 40. Locals saw her body hanging from a tree near her residence and informed police.

Land erosion worsens

Meanwhile, 150 metres of Lalmonirhat-Fulbari road has been devoured by the Dharla in Kulaghat area of Lalmonirhat Sadar upazila between morning to noon yesterday.

Manowarul Islam, sub-divisional engineer of Roads and Highways in Lalmonirhat, said they have informed Water Development Board of it.

"Without checking the erosion, it is not possible to repair the damaged road," he said.

Mokhlesur Rahman, sub-divisional engineer of WDB (Kurigram Zone), said it was now the responsibility of the Local Government and Engineering Department as a bridge was being constructed over the river at Kulaghat point under its supervision.

Arefin Islam, Phulbari upazila engineer of LGED, said 15 percent of works of the bridge has been completed and they would start checking the river erosion after completing of 80 percent of the project.

Meher Ali, 56, of Kulaghat, said, "If portions stretching 500 to 600 more metres of the road are devoured, our homesteads will be attacked."

Boatman Nabirul Islam, 42, said the entire pier was devoured.

Our Gaibandha correspondent adds, erosion by the river Jamuna has rendered over 500 families homeless in Patilbari, Digholkandi, Char Haldia, and Char Gobindapur villages, while 2,000 more are at risk in Haldia union of Shaghata upazila.

Two-storey Char Gobindapur Government Primary School has completely been devoured by the river.

Char Gobindapur High School, Kanaipara Dakhil Madrasa and a mosque are about to be eroded away.

A large portion of Haldia Bazaar has gone into the river.

Victims rush to the union parishad every day but do not get adequate assistance.

The upazila nirbahi officer and the deputy commissioner were informed of it, said Rafiqul Islam Mandol, chairman of Haldia Union Parishad.

Municipality mayor sued for corruption in Pabna

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

The Anti-Corruption Commission filed two separate cases against Bera municipality Mayor Md Abdul Baten and 12 others for embezzling Tk 78.6 lakh from government fund.

ACC Deputy Assistant Director of Pabna Md Jalal Uddin filed the cases with Bera Police Station on Thursday night.

The other accused include the municipality Assistant Engineer Md Firozul Alam, councillors Md Habibur Rahman Habi, Abu Daud Sheikh, Joynal Abedin, and Samsul Haque Khan.
