

Aamir Khan

turns Good Samaritan

After veteran actor Nana Patekar and Marathi film star Makarand Anaspure, Bollywood superstar Aamir Khan has come forward to help drought-affected farmers of Maharashtra. Khan has donated Rs 11 lakh to the Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis' rural water conservation programme, Jalayukta Shivaar Abhiyaan. The actor had met the CM earlier in March and shown interest in helping the scheme. Khan is already the Goodwill Ambassador for UNICEF and brand ambassador for the "Incredible India" campaign of the Union Tourism Department. Earlier this month, Patekar and Anaspure gave away Rs 24 lakh — cheques of Rs 15,000 each to over 120 farmers' widows in Marathwada and Vidarbha. The two have now planned to raise additional funds to implement a sustainable scheme to help the widows and their children fight the odds.

Fantastic Beasts & Where to Find Them Officially Begins Production

Warner Bros. has officially announced the beginning of filming for "Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them", the first installment of the next franchise based on J.K. Rowling's original novels. The star-studded cast sounds like something out of a fangirl's dream: Eddie Redmayne leads the cast as Scamander himself, with Katherine Waterston as Tina, Alison Sudol as Tina's sister Queenie, Dan Fogler as Jacob, Ezra Miller as Credence and Colin Farrell as Graves. Along with Rowling, Harry Potter veterans David Yates and David Heyman will be involved, with Yates directing and Keyman serving as co-producer, alongside Rowling, Steve Kloves, and Lionel Wigram.

"Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them" hits theaters in 2016.

G O T H A M

Season 2 Trailer

THE RISE OF THE

JOKER

Season 1 of Gotham definitely had its share of ups and downs, but the best part was seeing many of the classic Batman villains come to life in brand new origin stories. But the war for Gotham City is far from over. Show runner Bruno Heller recently revealed at Comic-Con that season 2 will be "the rise of the villains" as Gotham "starts to decline into chaos." It looks like Detective Jim Gordon and Captain Essen's "new day" after the fall of Fish Mooney and Falcone will not last very long. Season 2 will also be the rise of the Joker as Heller promised to find out how the hell Jerome, the proto-Joker we met earlier in this season, connects with the Joker as people know him.