Mirza Fakhrul's bail extended

SC clears way for Abbas' graft trial, Aman gets six-month bail in four cases

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court yesterday extended for six weeks its order that had granted bail to BNP acting Secretary General Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir in three arson and vandalism cases.

In response to three petitions filed by Fakhrul seeking an eight-week extension of its July 13 bail order, the apex court asked The BNP leader to surrender before the lower court concerned when the six weeks expire.

Fakhrul is now in the US for treatment, submitted the petitions on August 23 through his lawyer, saying that he needs eight more weeks for his treatment.

Meanwhile, the SC, scrapping a High Court verdict that had quashed the trial proceedings of a corruption case against BNP leader Mirza Abbas, cleared the way for the lower court to resume the trial.

The Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) filed the case on July 16, 2007 on charges of amassing illegal wealth worth Tk 5.97 crore and hiding information on his properties worth Tk 3.33 crore. The HC on October 13, 2010 quashed the case proceedings saying that the notice issued by the ACC asking about the wealth statement was illegal as there was no full-fledged commission in February 2007 when the notice was issued. In 2011, the ACC then filed an appeal with the SC against the HC verdict.

Meanwhile, the HC granted six-month bail to BNP leader Amanullah aman in four vandalism and arson cases.

have said Pairabond does not have proper navigability for a deep-sea port, but despite this it was decided that the port would be built there.

Mohiuddin said the decision to shift the proposed Asian Highway to Sylhet instead of Chittagong will hamper the plan to transform Chittagong port into a transit port.

He also alleged that in the name of dredging the Karnaphuli River, a big scam has occurred to make the Chittagong port inefficient, adding that the shipping ministry and its parliamentary standing committee have been silent regarding the process of handing Chittagong port over to the international mafias.

He claimed the port needs to be inefficient for "business" and "financial interest" of these international mafias.

Alleging that several "big shots" of Chittagong port and officials of the shipping ministry are involved in corruption have links with the mafia, Mohiuddin demanded their suspension.

He declared that he with public support would resist the "handing over" of Chittagong port to the mafia.
