SHUVO

STEPS BACK FROM BHROMOR

Popular actor Arefin Shuvo has decided to back out of a film despite singing it. The film is Sohel Arman directed 'Bhromor'. The Dhallywood heartthrob was even present during the inaugural programme of the film and the shooting of the movie was supposed to begin this October. However, Shuvo recently announced that he was stepping back from the film. In June this year, Shuvo and Shyla Sabi were announced to star in 'Bhromor' at the film's opening but decided to drop out owing to "disagreements" regarding certain features with the film's director and producer.

Shimu ties the knot

After the engagement back in July, popular TV actress Sumaiya Shimu ties the knot with the country director of US-based Relief International, Nazrul Islam on 28th August. The venue for the wedding ceremony was the Hotel Amari in Gulshan. The Bou Bhaat was held on the 29th at Nikunja's Hotel Le Meridien.

Shimu sought good wishes and prayers from all her friends, families, and fans. "I'm truly blessed with love from my fans all over the country. With your support, I've been successful in my acting career and I ask for your blessings so that I can be successful in my married life as well," said Shimu.
