

NUSRAT FARIA GOES TO BOLLYWOOD

Newcomer to the Bangladeshi movie scene, Nusrat Faria, has been cast for Bollywood as she is to star in Mumbai based film "Gawah: The Witness". Having only acted in one film so far, which has not even been released yet, Nusrat Faria becomes the first Bangladeshi actress to be cast in Bollywood, that too alongside actors like Emraan Hashmi and Nawazuddin Siddiqui. Scheduled to start filming later in October this year, the film is directed by Vishnu Dutt and Nusrat Faria has said that she has already started training for the part, the contract for which she will sign after the "look test" takes place.

BACK TO ROOTS EMON

Emon is coming back to the world of TV Dramas with his latest work, titled "Ucchotoro Beboharik Shikkha", which is scheduled to hit the screens this Eid. This Drama marks Emon's first TV project in 5 years. Recently he has been very busy with the film industry and has thus taken a bit of absence from the TV. Acting alongside him will be the beautiful Mehzabien. The story revolves around the many ups and downs of marital life. The drama is written by Rummon Rashid and directed by Moinul Wajed Rajib.

TO AIRPORT TAHSAN AND TISHA

A new TV Drama is coming this Eid featuring the popular on-screen couple Tahsan and Tisha. The drama is called "To Airport", written and directed by Mizanur Rahman Arian. This marks just another project among the dozens of others that this on-screen couple has done so far and all of them were highly praised by the audience.
