Trucks loaded with fertilisers lie stranded in long queues before the entrance to the buffer godown at Mahendranagar in Lalmonirhat Sadar upazila for days as the warehouse, already packed with double the usual capacity, cannot receive any more fertiliser.

LACK OF SPACE IN LALMONIRHAT BUFFER GODOWN

Huge fertilisers on trucks under open sky

S DILIP ROY, Lalmonirhat

Fifty trucks loaded with about 2,000 tonnes of fertilisers have been standing under the open sky in front of the 'buffer godown' at Mahendranagar in Lalmonirhat Sadar upazila for the last 10 days, as the items cannot be unloaded due to lack of space in the godown.

Over a hundred drivers and helpers of these trucks coming from Khulna, Kushtia and Chittagong demonstrated yesterday noon demanding steps to release them after unloading the fertilisers.

"We are waiting in front of the buffer godown with the fertiliser-loaded trucks while the truck owners are insisting us to return soon. We will not get extra fare from the contractor for the delay. We may even face job termination," said Nur Alam, a truck driver from Kushtia.

Over a hundred labourers engaged in loading and unloading goods at Mahendranagar buffer godown are passing their days without work amid hardship as the godown authorities have stopped loading and unloading fertilisers from the trucks for the last 10 days, showing the cause of space shortage in the godown.

3 fined for arranging marriage of underage girl

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

A mobile court fined three people for arranging marriage of an underage girl at Ekoriakanda village in Ishwarganj upazila of the district on Saturday.

Police said ninth grader Priya Akhtar, 15, daughter of Mojibur Rahman of the village, was set to be married with Mohammad Ali, an expatriate in Dubai, in the afternoon.

The marriage registrar refused to register the marriage as the bride was under age and left the scene.

Later, the guardians of the bride and bridegroom solemnised the marriage according to religious rituals.

On information, Upazila Nirbahi Officer Tofael Ahmed, who led the court, rushed to the spot and fined the bride, bridegroom and bridegroom's brother-in-law Abdul Miah Tk one thousand each.

In default, they are to suffer one week in jail, said Borhan Uddin, officer-in-charge of Ishwarganj Police Station.

In another incident, two stalkers were jailed for 15 days at Laheripara in Phulbaria upazila town the same day.

Stalkers Mehedi Hasan Jewel, 17, and Nabi Hossain, 16, of the area, used to tease a fifth grader on her way to school.

ISHWARGANJ COLLEGE IN MYMENSINGH Pro-AL groups clash over hiring teachers

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

At least 20 people were injured in a clash between two groups of pro-Awami League activists over teachers' recruitment at the honours level of Ishwarganj Degree College in the district yesterday.

The test for requirement of 15 teachers was scheduled to be held in the morning for three new subjects-Bengali, Accounting and Social Work but the college authorities later postponed it following the clash.

Police said a group of activists led by Hasan Mahmud, secretary of Ishwarganj upazila unit of Bangladesh Chhatra League, brought out a procession against the recruitment test on the campus.

The BCL men loyal to Rafiqul Islam Bulbul, president (acting) of the upazila unit of AL, and member of the college governing body, also asked the authorities to postpone the test.

Meanwhile, another group loyal to Abdus Sattar, former AL lawmaker and the incumbent president of the college governing body, brought out a procession in favour of holding the test.

The law enforcers intercepted both the groups at Ishwarganj Madhya Bazar at 2:15pm, said Borhan Uddin, officer-in-charge of Ishwarganj Police Station.

After breaking police barricade, the rival groups clashed with each other.

Earlier on the day, Vice Principal Masudul Haque served a notice suspending the recruitment test following a show-cause notice served by the court following a case filed in this regard, said college sources.

On September 10, Bulbul filed a case against 13 people including former lawmaker, college principal and three members of college governing body, bringing allegations of taking bribes from the applicants.

Bulbul demanded fair recruitments of teachers for honours classes to render quality education at the college.

Earlier, the test for recruitments was scheduled on August 22 but it was later postponed following a clash between two factions of AL.

Babar among

Misbah Uddin Siraj, public prosecutor of Sylhet District and Sessions Judge's Court, said the sensational case finally got the go-ahead with the indictment order.

As many as 171 people were named as prosecution witnesses in the case, he said.

In a text message to The Daily Star, Reza Kibria, son of the slain ex-finance minister, said the much-delayed charge framing represents only the initiation of the trial process more than a decade after the crime.

"What is important is that the real mastermind behind the assassination has been identified. We hope that during the trial the names of all those involved in the killing are identified through the testimony of the witnesses and those named in the charge sheet."

"We now believe that there will eventually be an opportunity to include the key plotters of the attack in the charge sheet."

"The investigation has been incomplete due to pressure from various political interests," he said.

"We hope the trial can proceed without hindrance or delay, and that due process is followed so that the guilty parties are correctly identified for punishment under the law of the country," added Reza.

Of the accused, 14 are in prison. They include Babar, state minister for home affairs during the last BNP-led government, and Mufti Abdul Hannan, leader of banned Islamist militant outfit Harkatul Jihad al Islami (Huji).

Eight accused are on bail, while 10 others, including Harris, political secretary of the then prime minister Khaleda Zia, have been absconding.

The 22 accused, who were present in court yesterday, pleaded not guilty.

If convicted, the accused may get the death penalty.

As per the Speedy Trial Tribunal Act, the court has to complete the trial within 135 working days.

However, upon the expiry of the deadline, if the judge deems that the trial requires more time, he can extend the time of the court proceedings, say legal experts.

BACKGROUND
 The day after the grenade attack, Abdul Mazid Khan, organising secretary of Habiganj district AL, filed two cases -- one for the killing and the other under the Explosive Substances Act -- with Habiganj Sadar Police Station.

Munshi Atiqur Rahman of the Criminal Investigation Department submitted the first charge sheet in March 2005 against 10 local BNP men.

Kibria's family outright rejected it, saying the investigation had failed to identify the mastermind. Following an appeal, the Sylhet tribunal in May 2006 ordered a further probe into the grenade attack.

A new investigation officer, Rafiqul Islam, submitted the second charge sheet to Habiganj magistrate's court in June 2011.

This time Babar, Mufti Hannan and 14 others were named. The CID found that Babar had been involved in the planning of the attack executed by Huji militants.

A week after the submission of the second charge sheet, Kibria's wife Asma Kibria filed a petition with a Habiganj court, expressing no confidence in the investigation. The court then forwarded the case documents and the petition to the Speedy Trial Tribunal in Sylhet.

Following two petitions by Asma and the tribunal prosecutor, Judge Dilip Kumar Debnath in January 2012 ordered another probe by a senior CID officer. The third charge sheet was submitted on November 13 last year, accusing nine more.

Of the 35 accused, the names of three were dropped from the charge sheet, as the investigators couldn't get details of two of them while the other passed away.
