Le Reve's Eid collection

The wardrobe of Le Reve's Eid line is an alluring one. The renowned fashion brand never fails to come up with innovative designs, themes, styles and patterns.

Keeping up the festive spirit of Eid, many of the attires boast bright colours. Meanwhile, there are also lighter colours given the hot weather. Similarly, keeping comfort in mind, many of the attires are made of cotton. However, you can also find some exclusive dresses made of silk, endy silk, endy cotton, georgette, chiffon, jayshree, etc. The designs have been drawn through 'karchupi', embroidery, screen print, block, stitching, etc. To provide a modern artistic touch, the line features floral designs, lace, smooth fabrics and velvet.

The shalwar kameez section comprises of various designs: frock style, A-line, tunic butterfly and the regular ones. Check out their use of traditional 'chundri' and tie-dye.

There are different kinds of panjabis at Le Reve: short, semi-long and traditional. The men's line also includes T-shirts, casual shirts, denim and twill pants.

The fashion brand also caters for children's wear, with various fabulous styles. For children aged between two and twelve, there are shirts, tee shirts, panjabis, frocks, etc.

Monnujan Nargis, Head of Design, Le Reve, commented on the Eid collection. "There is an emphasis on bright colours this year, along with a blend of Eastern and Western cutting," she said.

You can check out and purchase Le Reve's Eid ensemble at all their outlets as well as at their website, www.lerevecraze.com.
