

Ranbir will bounce back: Katrina

Ranbir Kapoor's recent films may have failed to do well at the box office but actress Katrina Kaif says the actor is sure to bounce back. Ranbir is going through a rough patch in his career as his last few films - "Besharam", "Roy" and "Bombay Velvet" failed to grab eyeballs but the actress is hopeful and says it is just a matter of time till he rebounds citing his recent slump as a part of the ups and downs every actor goes through. Talking about her recently-released film "Phantom", Katrina says she is happy with the audience's response. The actress is now excited for Nitya Mehra's film with Sidharth Malhotra, for which she has started shooting. The film titled "Baar Baar Dekho" is a love story, which happens over a period of time.

2016 will mark the comeback of my music

...Mandy Moore

After lying "dormant" in the music world, Hollywood actress and songstress Mandy Moore is confident that she'll be back with a bang in 2016. On a trip to India for a social cause, she says she feels "unfulfilled" without creating music. The multi-talented "A Walk To Remember" artiste has doled out a total of six studio albums, including "I Wanna Be with You", "Mandy Moore", "Coverage" and "Wild Hope", apart from "Amanda Leigh" and her debut album "So Real" which came way back in 1999. Moore referred to the fact that she has been devoting a part of her time and life to her role as the global goodwill ambassador of NGO Population Services International (PSI), which is also the reason why she came to India. Moore, who split from Ryan Adams, her husband of almost six years earlier this year, also feels "refreshed" about making new music.

Sonu Nigam & Atif perform in Dubai

Indian and Pakistani singers Sonu Nigam and Atif Aslam paired up to perform in a five-hour concert. The singers shared the stage at the World Trade Centre in Dubai on Thursday night proving that art has no borders and despite their respective countries being at loggerheads, their hearts are the same beyond borders. To show mutual admiration, Nigam sang songs by Pakistani legends Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan and Reshma while Aslam sang songs by Mohammad Rafi, Kishore Kumar and Jagjit Singh. Moreover, Nigam performed songs sung by Aslam and Atif reciprocated with Nigam's chartbusters. Nigam's rendition of "Shukran Allah" as a mark of respect for the UAE martyrs, who lost their lives in Operation Restoring Hope in Yemen, was followed by a two-minute silence.

