

Young actor, Shormi Mala, took the industry by storm upon her entry. Already with a good base in theatre, Shormi has been able to put her audience in a hypnotic trance while on the silver screen as well, with her depth of character and her note-worthy expressions. Having won the national award as Best Actress for her performance in Mrittika Maya, in 2013, she is also a part of this year's Oscar nominated film- Jalal er Golpo. Along with a great filmography, she has been and still is a part of numerous television serials, such as Badrul Anam Saud's Pinjor and Afsana Mimi's Doll's House- Shatti Tarar Timir. We caught up with the phenomenal actor to find out some fun-facts about her!

What are your three favourite possessions?
My collections of films, music, books.

Name your top three books.
Parthibo and Durbin by Shirshendu Mukhopadhyay,
Gorbodharini by Shomresh Majumder

If you had the chance to be the main character of any movie, which character of which movie would it be?
From recent movies, I'd love to play Rani (played by Kangana Ranaut) from Queen

Name four directors you want to work with?
Aparna Sen, Koushik Ganguly, Sujoy Ghosh and Goutam Ghose

What is your motto in life?
'Learning through perseverance will never let you fail.'

When Shormi Mala isn't in front of the camera, she can be found...
On stage, in the theatre.

What advice would you give to young aspiring actors?
Always respect the elders in the industry, and do not compare yourself to others. The best way to strive is to constantly try to be better than yourself, not anyone else.
