

SPECIAL FEATURE

EID OF THE STARS

The festive seasons of Eid is a welcome break for any busy individual from their routine of daily hustle and bustle. Among the scores of people trying to make a living, there are the familiar faces that are known and loved by all also trying to make their living through their art. So here's an account of how some of the stars from the world of glitz and glamour spent their Eids.

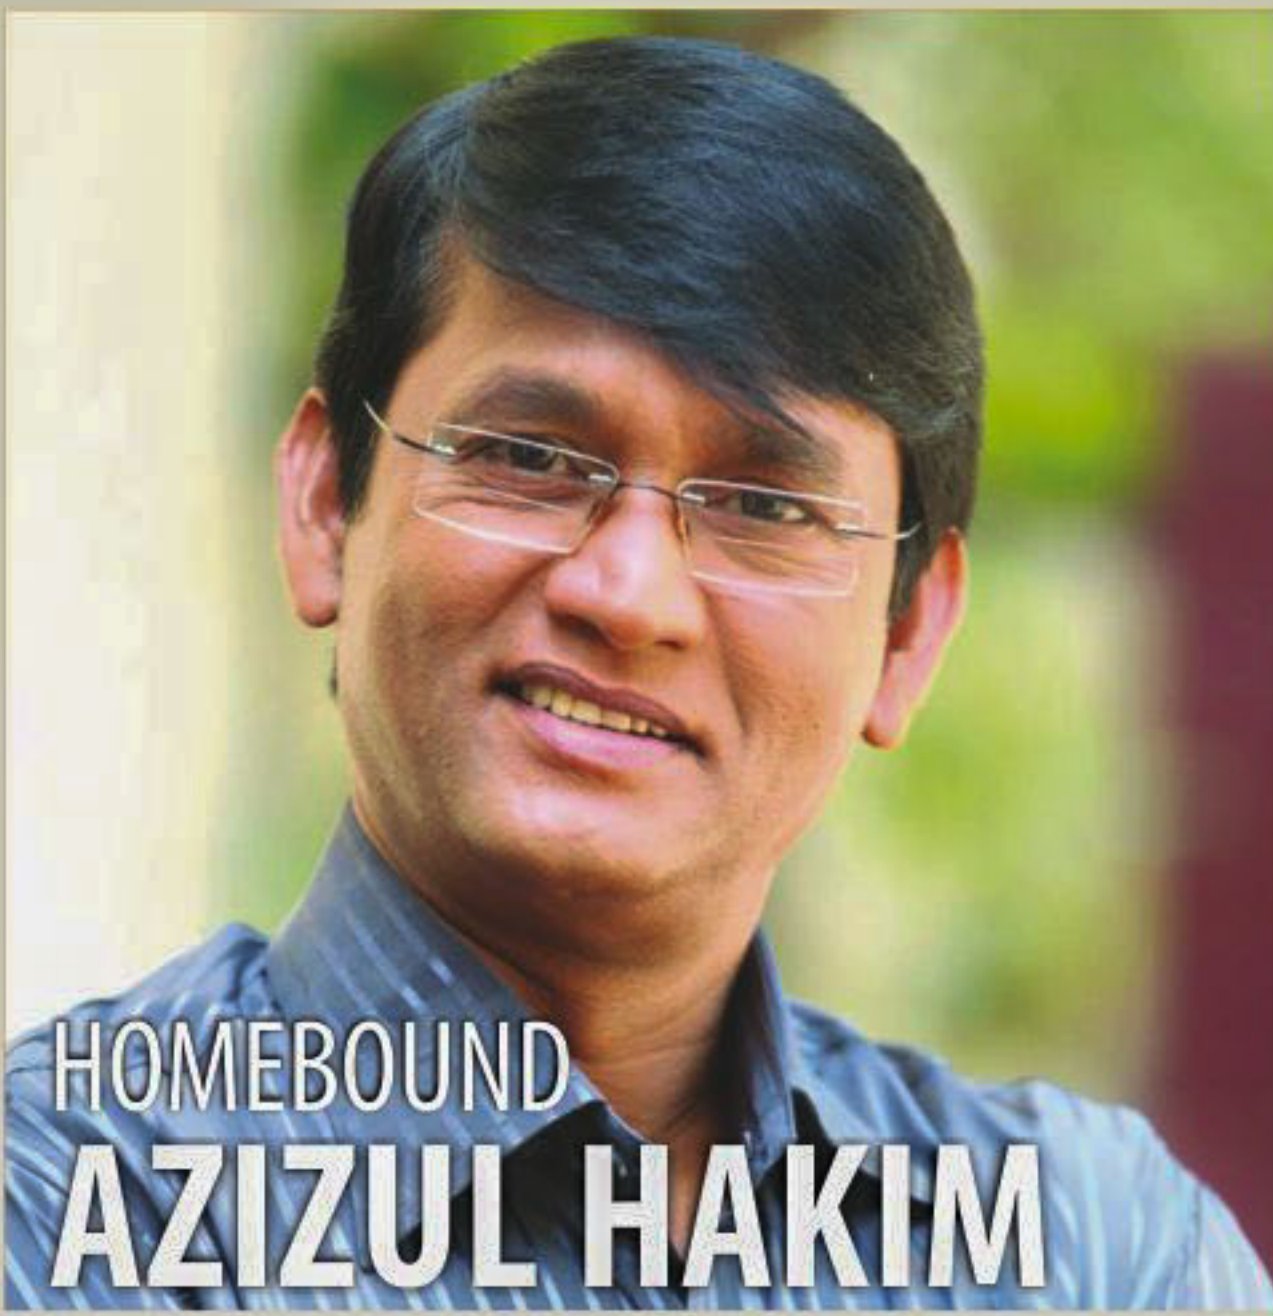

BY SHOWBIZ DESK

MUNDANE EID FOR RAZZAK

The "Nayokraj" (King of Actors) recently recovered from a life threatening medical condition and on advice of his family and doctors, spent his Eid at home with his loved ones near him. He spent the day catching up with relatives and spending time with his grandchildren.

HOMEBOUND AZIZUL HAKIM

Actor-Director Azizul Hakim spent the entirety of the Eid day indoors, spending time with his family and friends. He plans on going on a family outing to a leisure resort on the day following Eid.

SOCIALLY RESPONSIBLE EID FOR WAHID ANAM

Director Wahid Anam spent most of the days preceding Eid busy working with the dramas he has in the works. He went back to his hometown of Barishal on the night before Eid and spent most of Eid day spending time with his family and near ones. Unlike the delights of Eid from his childhood days, he checks up on how the others around him are spending their Eid and spreads the joy among those who may not be so fortunate.

BRIDE-TO-BE SPORSHIA

Busy with the festivities of her upcoming nuptials, Sporshia spend most of her Eid busy with the wedding preparations. Engaged in a small homely ceremony just a couple of days before Eid, her Eid day was spent visiting relatives and would-be in laws.

EID WITH ME IN IT BHABNA

Making her return to TV dramas after making a footprint in the silver screens through her latest movie "Bhoyonkor Shundor", Ashna Habib Bhabna spent most of Eid day being her own critic by watching her own work. Starring in four TV dramas for this Eid, she acted with no makeup and flaunted her unfiltered beauty on Animesh Aich's "Anugomon" and thus spent most of Eid day glued to the TV set.

SPECIAL EID FOR NUSRAAT FARIA

Model turned actress Nusraat Faria's Eid was one that was very special since her first movie "Aashiqui" was released. Although she had reserved the day of Eid to be spent with her family, she was preoccupied with the thoughts of how the movie was being received by her fans. She plans on visiting the cinemas and making appearances among her fans soon as part of promoting the film.

