

CTG MANAGER KILLING 3 JMB men remanded

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chittagong court yesterday granted a two-day remand each for three alleged activists of banned militant outfit Jama'atul Mujahideen Bangladesh (JMB) in a mugging and killing case.

The 'JMB men' Bulbul Ahmed alias Fuad alias Roki, Md Shajahan alias Kajal and Mahbubur Rahman alias Khokan were produced before the court.

On September 5, detectives held five alleged JMB men, including its commander Taufique-ul-Islam alias Javed alias Rana and recovered some hand-made grenades, one pistol, ammunition and bomb making materials from a floor of Hazi Nur Ahmed Tower in Khowajnapur of Azampur in the city.

Of them, Javed was killed in a grenade explosion in the city's Kuaish area while police conducting a drive there to recover grenades on September 6 following his confessional statement.

Police later claimed that they had found link of the "JMB men" with the mugging and killing a manager of a local company in Majhigat area of the city's Sadarghat on September 23. They threw a hand grenade during the snatching incident leaving their two cohorts - Robiul and Rafik - and the manager dead.

Before a court on October 7, another arrested "JMB man" Babu confessed to the killing of a pir and his attendant on September 4.

Savar road crashes kill two RMG workers

Angry colleagues block highway

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

Two female RMG workers were killed in separate road accidents in Ashulia, outside the capital, yesterday.

Ful Banu, 25, a worker of Palmal Group, was killed when a minibus ran her over while she was crossing Dhaka-Tangail highway at Zamgora. She hailed from Tangail.

Following the incident, agitated workers blocked the highway for two hours and torched three minibuses. They also vandalised five other vehicles. Police rushed to the spot and took the situation under control. Later, additional police had been deployed to avoid any untoward situation.

Meanwhile, within 11 hours another worker - Momtaz Begum, 26, of Bando Design Ltd - was killed when a truck ran her over on the highway in Gorat Sarker market area.

Kotwali Police Station Officer-in-Charge Jashim Uddin said the groups were trying to establish supremacy. "We fired four rounds of bullets to disperse the groups," he added.

Limon claimed to The Daily Star that the chases occurred as Babor was trying to force him into refusing a railway tender bid he had won on October 6 and that Babor's men had been attacking his follower's houses in the morning.

Babor denied, saying he had nothing to do with tenders.

"It was not my group, rather the local residents who protested criminals carrying out many criminal activities including mugging and drug dealing," he said.

"Now I am in Dhaka. I have returned from Hajj four days ago. If anyone invokes my name in railway tender, then I will file a defamation suit," he added.

The June 24, 2013 gunfight over a Tk 1.5 crore railway renovation tender had left a Jubo League activist, Sajju Palit, and a slum dweller, Amran Hossain, 8, dead.

Police filed a murder case accusing 87 of the groups including Babor and Limon. Both were expelled, arrested by police and freed on bail within a few months.

Written test results for pre-primary assistant teachers out

DU B unit admission test results today
CITY DESK

The results of written tests for the post of assistant teacher in government pre-primary schools in 22 districts were published yesterday with a total of 9,727 candidates coming out successful.

The candidates will get results at www.dpe.gov.bd or at the notice boards of district primary education offices, it said. They will later be informed about the date of interview.

Meanwhile, admission test results of Dhaka University's "B" (Kha) unit will be announced today, said a press release.

DU Vice Chancellor AAMS Arefin Siddique will announce the result at the central admission office at 10:30am, said the press release.

Yesterday, Jagannath University published its "B" unit admission test results. DU and JNU results will be available at www.du.ac.bd and www.jnu.ac/ba respectively and also on the university notice boards.

All children must be treated equally

Girl Child Day discussion told
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

All children, irrespective of their gender, must have equal opportunity to make the country a middle-income nation, said speakers at a programme in the capital yesterday.

National Girl Child Advocacy Forum, a platform of 178 organisations, and Shishu Academy organised the discussion at the academy in observance of the National Girl Child Day-2015 celebrated on September 30 every year.

Prior to the discussion, the organisers brought out a procession from Shahbagh to Shishu Academy.

A total of 48 percent of 3.2 crore children are girls, according to a statement published by the organisations. According to their data, 230 girls were raped till August this year.

Citing different media reports, the statement said 37 girls were subjected to early marriage, seven became victims of acid attacks and 35 girls were sexually harassed till August this year.

Quoting Bangladesh Demographic and Health Survey, the statement said 78 percent girls suffer from malnutrition, 90 percent of which is among girls of rural areas.

"Thirty five lakh children are currently at risk because of a lack of education, nutrition and other basics rights," said Meher Afroz Chumki, state minister at the Ministry of Women and Children Affairs, as the chief guest of the programme.

Nasima Begum, secretary at the ministry, said the government needs to ensure safety and security of girls.

Afterwards, prizes were distributed among children who took part in an essay competition held on the occasion of the day.

will be held at around 29,074 puja mandaps this year, while the number was 28,458 last year in the country, the Parishad leaders said.

The puja will be held at 224 mandaps in the capital this year, while the number was 221 last year, they said.

Persecution with impunity threat to ethical journalism

Says Monjurul Ahsan Bulbul
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Culture of impunity is a major threat to practicing ethical journalism in Bangladesh, said Monjurul Ahsan Bulbul, president of a faction of Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ).

A total of 24 journalists were killed in 44 years but only one of the victim families got justice, mentioned Bulbul, also editor-in-chief of ATN News, at a seminar on "Contemporary Ethical and Legal Challenges for Journalists" organised by the Department of Media and Mass Communication of American International University-Bangladesh (AIUB) yesterday.

The constitution has guaranteed freedom of expression under article 39 but nobody knows what will happen after someone expresses opinion. There are almost 20 laws which clash with the freedom of press, he said.

Referring to a recent comment of the home minister, Bulbul stressed the need for the definition of defamation.
