

DOCTOR MURAD MURDER CASE Court rejects bail prayer of four accused

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali
A court yesterday rejected the bail prayer of all the four accused in the case for killing Maklukur Rahman Murad, a doctor of Gonoshasthaya Kendra Hospital in 2013.

gation officer (IO) of the case.
On October 11, police arrested Monjur Quader, an official of Gonoshasthaya Kendra Hospital in Dhaka, his driver Moneza Akhter, Doctor Mezbah Uddin, of the same hospital, and Golam Mostafa Nantu, owner of the building where the Galachipa Sub-centre is housed, raiding different areas in the capital.
The following day, police placed the arrestees before the Galachipa Upazila Judicial Magistrate's Court, seeking a five-day remand. The court also rejected the remand prayer yesterday.

Dr Murad along with a 56-member medical team went to visit a sub-centre in Golachipa upazila and went missing on December 6, 2013.
On December 8, his body was found floating in a pond adjacent to the centre.
On January 21, 2014, Dr Murad's maternal uncle Asgor Ali Khan filed a murder case with Galachipa Police Station.

PANCHAGARH First phase of land survey starts in 36 ex-enclaves

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon
The first phase of a land survey started yesterday in all 36 former Indian enclaves in Panchagarh to determine ownership of the plots that have been under possession of the enclave people for long.
District administration sources said the survey will continue till November 15.
The district administration has formed three separate vigilance committees headed by UNOs, and nine teams for 36 former enclaves of Panchagarh Sadar, Boda and Debiganj upazilas, to conduct the land survey in the former enclaves.

A total of 18 teams are conducting land survey simultaneously in all 111 former Indian enclaves in Panchagarh, Nilphamari, Kurigram and Lalmonirhat districts, sources said.
Ownership will be given officially to the people of the former enclaves after the survey, examination of land documents and determination of possession, sources said.

RAPE OF THAKURGAON SCHOOLGIRL Human chain demands arrest of culprits

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon
Activists of different non-governmental organisations (NGOs) formed a human chain at Thakurgaon intersection yesterday, demanding immediate arrest and exemplary punishment of the alleged rapists of a schoolgirl of Khalipur village in Baliadangi upazila of the district.
The human chain followed a discussion at the same venue where the speakers said Sujon, 24, son of Hamidul Islam of Charol Chowranghi Bazar in the upazila, and his accomplices picked up the eighth grader of Dogachi High School around 9:00am on October 3 while she was going to the school.

The gang then took the girl to a nearby place and raped her, leaving her seriously injured. Locals took her to the upazila health complex.
On October 8, the victim's father filed a case with Baliadangi Police Station against the rapists, said the speakers.
Though the culprits are moving freely, law enforcers are reluctant to arrest them, they alleged.
Contacted, Aminul Islam, officer-in-charge of the police station, said they are raiding different areas to arrest the culprits.

Jubo League leader held with Yaba

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur
Police arrested a local Jubo League leader with five Yaba tablets at Bhalki village in Akkelpur upazila of Joypurhat district on Wednesday night.
The arrestee is Soheli

Rana, 30, joint convener of Akkelpur municipality unit of Jubo League, and son of late Basir Ali of Nichabazar area in the upazila.
A team of patrol police asked Rana, riding a motor-bike on Akkelpur-Joypurhat road, to stop as his movement seemed suspicious, said locals.

But Rana tried to flee. Later, the law enforcers arrested Rana with the Yaba, said Md Sazzad Hossain, officer-in-charge of Akkelpur Police Station.

Husband kills wife over family feud

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali
A man hacked his wife to death early yesterday over a family dispute.
The victim was identified as Shefali Begum, 45, wife of Sultan Howlader of Uttar Dharandee village under Patuakhali Sadar upazila. She was mother of four children.
K M Tariqul Islam, officer-in-charge (OC) of Patuakhali Police Station, and locals said the victim and her husband were in the house while other members of the family went to visit a doctor at Patuakhali town.

Sultan and Shefali had a quarrel over a family matter. At one stage, Sultan hacked Shefali and fled the scene, leaving her dead.
Locals and relatives informed the police, who recovered the body from the spot at around 8:00am and sent it to Patuakhali Medical College Hospital morgue.
A murder case was filed with Patuakhali Police Station, the OC said.

DAHAGRAM-ANGARPOTA Villagers suffer as bridge unused for damaged approach road

S DILIP ROY, Lalmonirhat
Over a thousand people of three villages of Dahagram-Angarpota in Patgram upazila under the district are badly suffering as a bridge, built last year to ease the communication of the three villages, has become unusable after damage of its approach road by the recent flood.
"The bridge helped better communication with the mainland in Patgram upazila, but it is useless now as its approach road was damaged by flood," said Abdul Jalil, 55, of Barabari village of Dahagram-Angarpota.

The bridge was used for movement of rickshaws, vans, bicycles and trolleys on the road and it helped farmers to transport their produced crops easily but they are in trouble now due to damage of the approach road, said Delowar Hossain, 55, of Dakkhin Charvillage.
"Our school going children have become the worst sufferers due to the situation. We appealed to the local union parishad authority for repairing the approach road of the bridge, but to no result yet," said Abdul Gani, 62, of the same village.
Habibur Rahman, chairman of Dahagram union parishad, said, "I have appealed to the upazila administration for fund to repair the damaged approach road. I will start the work immediately after getting fund for the purpose."
