

MOUSHUMI IN FERDOUS' PRODUCTION

Ferdous always had Moushumi by his side as the popular duo delivered countless hits over the ages like "Khairun Shundori", "Kokhono Megh, Kokhono Brishti" and "Miss Daina". They are good friends behind the scenes as well and the award winning actress is set to star again opposite Ferdous in his next production. After Chashi Nazrul Islam's "Dhrubotara", Moushumi is set to appear opposite Ferdous again in the liberation war film "Postmaster 71". The film also stars Shahidul Alam Shacchu, Nizhum Rubina and Ovi, and is set to be released on 26th March 2016.

Both remuneration and quality are falling JYOTIKA JYOTI

TV actors have always had complaints about the budgets for the productions, and actress Jyotika Jyoti has said that this has led to the fall in both the quality of the dramas and the actors' remunerations. She also added that the length of viewing has fallen, leading to lower quality of dramas and fewer viewers. She also blamed the creators as well, as she said some of them tend to focus more on quantity rather than quality. The actress recently finished filming for "Anil Bagchi'r Ekdin" and has expressed interest in working more with mainstream commercial films rather than TV dramas.

KUMAR BISWAJIT AS MUSIC DIRECTOR OF JEDEE

Kumar Biswajit is going to lead the music direction for an entire movie for the fourth time. The film, titled "Jedee", has already finished recording a duet written by Kabir Bakul and performed by him and Nancy. Biswajit's debut as a music director came through P A Kajal's "Shami Istri'r Wada" for which he won the National Film Award for Best Composer, Singer and Music Director. He helmed the music direction of Prosun Rahman's "Sutopar Thikana" and "Swapnoberi". Biswajit commented on his new work that he's happy with the autonomy he has received for working with the project and hopes to keep up with the fan's expectations.
