Five stranded workers return from Iraq

Complain to NHRC against recruiting agency, demand compensation

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Five Bangladeshi migrant workers soon after returning from war-torn Iraq yesterday submitted a written complaint to National Human Rights Commission against a Bangladeshi recruiting agency, demanding compensations.

Career Overseas Ltd in May 2014 sent 180 migrants including the five -- Jahurul Islam of Sirajganj, Shah Jamal of Bogra, Nur Alam and Mohibul of Noakhali, and Abdul Baten of Narsingdi -- promising jobs at Abu Torab Housing Project in Najaf. But the Iraqi company failed to run the project due to clashes among different groups in the Middle Eastern country.

With no work, the Bangladeshi migrants were forced to stay in the company's labour camp for over seven months and were also beaten there, according to some migrants, whenever they wanted to return home.

Rights Jessore, a human rights organisation, contacted by the migrants, brought the issue before the media and demanded that the agency be involved in bringing them back.

135m euro loan deal signed with EIB for railway development

BSS, Dhaka

The European Investment Bank (EIB), the European Union's long-term financing institution, has recently signed in Dhaka a loan agreement of 135 million euros with the government of Bangladesh to further improve the railways.

The project is part of a broader programme to upgrade the 321km rail corridor between Dhaka and Chittagong by 2020, and will also facilitate the rail connection of landlocked Bhutan, Nepal and the northeastern states of India with Chittagong Port.

The total project cost is approximately 555 million euros.

through the celebration of Mahashashthi puja.

Asked about their plan for the security of foreigners, who would visit the mandaps, especially after the recent killings of two foreigners, Benazir said the elite force would work to ensure security and safety for both locals and foreigners as each and every life is important.

Benazir mentioned that they had not received any threat yet but still they had been communicating with all intelligence agencies and friendly countries to combat probable threats.

Combined efforts of law enforcers and public are required to tackle untoward incidents like vandalism of idols and sexual harassment during the puja celebration, he added.
