

The Goddess with the Clay Feet

Fall is a pleasant time to be in Bangladesh. There's no sweating profusely, and if you're in Dhaka, you won't be cold either – the nip in the air is just right. The short-lived shiuli (night/coral jasmine) makes the early morning (or night) runs in the park extra nice. In a word, the setting is perfect; perfect for the most celebrated Goddess among Bengali Hindus to arrive. The celebrations marking her arrival and brief stay, however, are inclusive rather than exclusive – sharbojonin in the true sense. At the core of it all is faith but the manifestations emerge through art, music and more. The cover story in this issue delves deep into this aspect of Durga Puja. Don't miss out on the celebration. Have an auspicious holiday.

– Karim Waheed, Editor, SHOUT

THIS WEEK'S HORRORSCOPE

- ARIES
 You are the reason people share cow selfies on the internet.
- TAURUS
 Will you make me an offer I can't refuse? I need to sell my soul but the market's slow.
- GEMINI
 What's that gross thing on your feet? You?
- CANCER
 People fall in love with you for your money. Don't have money? Well, that explains everything.
- LEO
 Yo mama's biriyani so good they made it in a cooking show, shot on a beach in Thailand.
- VIRGO
 Your life is a tacky Bollywood movie waiting to be made.
- LIBRA
 You're like a British swear-word. Creative, ugly, fascinating and offensive to humanity.
- SCORPIO
 I saw you the other day doing something I know you regret. Send me money.
- SAGITTARIUS
 You win an Oscar gold medal for economics in the line of duty. No one likes you.
- CAPRICORN
 Would you swim in a lake full of you? I know I would.
- AQUARIUS
 Whatever it is that you're doing, you can't do it. Unless you have a tail. IT'S LIKE AN EXTRA LIMB.
- PISCES
 Next time someone tries to mug you, mug them back. That'll teach them. And you.

MIXTAPE

- FLY
 Jefferson Airplane
 White Rabbit
- Foo Fighters
 Learn To Fly
- Far East Movement ft. The Cataracs, DEV
 Like A G6
- Angus and Julia Stone
 Big Jet Plane
- B.o.B. featuring Hayley Williams
 Airplanes
- Air
 All I Need
- Kenny Loggins
 Danger Zone

APP REVIEW

アニメ Trakr

MAYABEE ARANNYA

Platform: iOS (8.0 or later)

Have you been watching anime for a while now and are looking for a place to organise the ones you've watched and the ones you plan to? Or are you new to the anime world and want to know what to watch? Whichever your purpose may be, this is the app for you.

Anime Trakr lets you create a library where you can sort all anime into five categories: "Planning," "Watching," "Completed," "On Hold," and "Dropped." You can do this manually or by syncing your MyAnimeList account. This feature makes it so easy to remember where you left off in an anime since you can track each episode you watched. You can even set reminders for new episodes.

It has a huge database and provides trailers, summaries, ratings, airing dates and a whole lot more for every anime. There's even a gallery of images related to the anime you've searched for. This is a great way to get wallpapers of your favourite series. Each episode has a short summary and an image with it, so you know exactly which one you've watched.

If you're looking for new anime to watch, the "Discover" feature is your new best friend. It recommends anime by comparing the ones already in your library. Seasonal charts are updated every time, and new anime are added as soon as they are released. You can choose to filter by genre, popularity, year of release and even age rating.

I've been using the app for a few months now and I have no complaints. The app is updated frequently and has been improving greatly. It provides news about anime right there in the app. It is everything anime-related, bundled into a single app.