BRITISH COUNCIL

Proposal for Partnership for Social Enterprise Support Programme

The British Council seeks to secure the services of a partner or partners to implement the capacity building programme "Incubate, innovate and grow: a social enterprise support programme" for the young social entrepreneurs through a competition in Bangladesh.

The competition aims to encourage and support the best ideas and projects in the social entrepreneurship field. The Social Enterprise Competition key events will include: raising awareness campaign, boot camp, pitching day, award ceremony and incubation programme for the winners and a business model showcasing opportunity to the British Council policy dialogue event in 2016.

This programme will increase the entrepreneurial knowledge and skills on how to solve a social or environmental problem with a sustainable business model.

It is expected that the successful partner will, at a minimum:

- has experience delivering innovative competition programmes;
- has access to the network of sector experts;
- has experience presenting and communicating complex ideas;
- demonstrate an ability to mobilise a group of young people towards a common goal; and
- has an understanding of social enterprise eco-system.

The standard duration of each of the contracts will be three months but it can be extended for a further month depending on project requirements.

There are also additional data which would be desirable for the partner to obtain. These are listed in the Request for Proposal document.

The deadline for submission of proposals is: 5.00pm Tuesday 10 November 2015
