

GRAPE
VINE

TOUKIR AHMED is a Timid Person

The man is scared of everything and fear rules every aspect of his life. Crossing a street or looking straight at his boss, everything scares him. He unfortunately saw someone being murdered with his own eyes and the fear crippled him such that he never even talked about it to anyone and had suffered a fever soon after. The man is called Hamidur Rahman Khan, but Toukir

Ahmed has been carrying this man's persona with him for the past few days in front of the camera. A Liberation War centred TV drama is in produced with this Hamidur Rahman Khan as the central character directed by Faisal Rajib and penned by Masum Shahriyar. Alongside Toukir Ahmed is Ashna Habib Bhabna and Kazi Uzzal.

S I TUTUL in "Pagol er Mela"

Popular singer S I Tutul has sang title songs for many TV dramas before and this time he has lent his voice. The recording was done last week and S I Tutul commented that he loved the songs as the lyrics are depictions of life itself. It speaks about the eccentrics and fanatics of the various aspects of life, as some are money crazed while some are crazy in love, making life an infinite supply of fanatics. He also says the lyrics enlighten the innate madness that lies inside everyone and hopes the audience will like the song. The drama is now in post-production and is scheduled to be aired soon on a local TV channel.

AUPEE KARIM takes on new identity

Talented actress Aupee Karim has made a name for herself a long time back in the Bangladeshi entertainment industry. Well known for her acting in TV dramas and commercials, she is not very active nowadays as an actress but hosts talk shows quite often. Her fans will find her in a new role from now on as she has recently signed on with Transcom Consumer Products Limited as a brand ambassador for PepsiCo's "Kurkure" brand of chips. She said, she's happy to be the brand ambassador for Kurkure because, as a homemaker, she supports the fun element it creates in bringing the family together. The product has been in the market for some time now and consumers as well as her fans will get to see her take part in various promotions of the product, and even model for the brand in the future.

