

Nusrat Faria Mazhar is now a popular name on the list of actors making it big. Starting off as an anchor, both on stage and on television, and doing stints as a radio jockey on Radio Foorti for some time, Faria is now a sought after actor after the release of Ashiqui – a love story, jointly produced by companies from India and Bangladesh. There are also talks of Faria signing up with a production company in Mumbai, India. She took some time out to speak to the Star Weekend team.
