

MAMUNUR RASHID

Leads Beauty Circus

After the selection of the locations and screenplay had been finalized, the unit for "Beauty Circus" has been concentrating more on casting and shooting related issue. It has been known that Joya Ahsan will be playing the central character in the play but Mahmud Didar has also informed that Mamunur Rashid will also star in the role of a people's representative and a political figure. Mahmud Didar also said that his wealth of experience of working in both sides of Bengal has made him an asset to the production as he can provide valuable advice on various subjects. He also hopes to bring in other greats like Kobori, Animesh Aich and Amitabh Reza in advisory roles to guide the people working in the production.

The story revolves around a team of circus performers and brings out the many social aspects of their lives and trade. Filming is scheduled to officially begin on January next year.

Joy comes back with Shotti Bolchi

Joy Shahriar burst into the music scene six years back with his hit "Shotti Bolchi Tomakey Ar Bhalobashi Na". A remake of the song has been launched earlier in the week and the popularity of the track has not faded yet. Written and composed by Joy himself, he tried to put in a new sound to his previous hit and released the song on "Robi Radio", a consumer service provided by mobile phone operator Robi. Alongside this, some more songs are being released like "Pohela Boishak", "Shukh Katurey", "Bhalobashar Gaan" (featuring Naomi), etc. The singer-songwriter said that he has chosen this medium to meet the demands of the fans and wishes to publish his next works in an audio CD format.

Teacher Lara Lotus

Popular actress and TV host, Lara Lotus is adding a new identity to her persona as a teacher who will be teaching school going children at Kader Molla International School in Narshingdi. However, she will not have to move to Narshingdi as the school has allowed her enough flexibility to go and take classes whenever she can find time in her busy schedule. She has said that it's only a few hours away from her home in Uttara and she hopes to make enough time as she loves teaching children. On her recent visit to the school, she also said that the children like her as well and they are also excited to have her as their teacher.

She also let the media know that she has officially joined social networking website Facebook very recently, and although she is not as busy with acting nowadays, she is currently working on a couple of projects alongside being a host. Her latest work in a TV commercial for "Magic Sponge" is scheduled to be aired from early this month.
