

Ctg police make 111 arrests

Most of them 'common criminals'; 12 suspected Shibir men

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Police yesterday arrested 111 people, who are facing various criminal charges including snatching, extortion and destructive activities, in Chittagong district and city.

Twelve of them are Islami Chhatra Shibir leaders and activists, claimed the law enforcers, saying they were planning to create unrest.

On a tip off, four Shibir men were arrested at a student lodging house close to BED College of Paschim Bakalia in the port city, said Md Mohsin, officer-in-charge (OC) of Bakalia Police Station.

They were identified as Shibir's Bakalia ward unit Finance Secretary Md Mainuddin Sifat, 21, and activists Khairul Abedin Roni, 21, Farhan Nasir, 18, and Abdil Kaiyum, 18.

A list of Shibir members at different educational institutions and donation receipts were seized from the mess, said the OC.

He said all 12 suspected Shibir men including eight arrested in Satkania upazila were accused in different cases related to destructive activities.

In an overnight drive, Chittagong district police arrested 99 other people wanted in cases of snatching, mugging and extortion, said Additional Superintendent of Police Md Naimul Hasan.

THREE MYMENSINGH WAR CRIME SUSPECTS

Court seeks probe report Jan 4

Two more witnesses link five 'Kishoreganj Razakars' to killing of nine

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday directed prosecutors to submit on January 4 an investigation report, if there is any, over the alleged involvement of three men of Mymensingh's Phulbaria upazila in crimes committed in the district during the 1971 Liberation War.

Meanwhile, the tribunal recorded the testimonies and cross-examination of the eighth and ninth prosecution witness in the case against five Kishoreganj "Razakars" facing seven charges over involvement in crimes committed in 1971.

Prosecutors submitted a progress report and had sought two months' time from the three-member tribunal led by Justice

Anwarul Haque to complete the probe against the Mymensingh men.

Arrested hours after the tribunal issued a warrant on August 11, Hazi Amjad Ali died on September 4 due to cardiac complications while Riaz Uddin Fakir is in police custody. Wajuddin is on the run.

The tribunal's investigation agency says Amjad was an adviser of anti-liberation Razakar Bahini in Phulbaria while Riaz an Al-Badr commander and Wajuddin a Razakar.

Investigations, initiated in October 2014, found the three's "involvement" in the killing of at least 50 people, it adds.

Selim said MPs know better how to properly run the many educational institutions they set up.

"None can have more feelings about my own family than me. I have set up colleges and schools. How can others interfere in recruiting teachers in my organisations?" he added.

MAJ GEN MANZUR MURDER CASE

CID given more probe time

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday for the ninth time gave Criminal Investigation Department (CID) more time, this time over three months, for investigations in the case over Maj Gen Abul Manzur's killing in 1981.

Judge SM Saiful Islam of the First Addition District and Sessions Judge's Court of Dhaka fixed February 25, 2016 for submission of the probe report following a petition submitted by the investigation officer, CID Special Superintendent Abdul Kahar Akond.

The main accused in the charge sheet is the then chief of army staff HM Ershad, now Jatiya Party chief and special adviser to the prime minister, who is being represented by Advocate Sheikh Muhammad Serajul Islam.

Ershad was earlier exempted from appearing in court. Two others accused -- Maj (ret'd) Kazi Emdadul Haque and Lt Col (ret'd) Mostafa Kamaluddin Bhuiyan -- were present yesterday.

Manzur, the commander of sector-8 during the Liberation War, was killed in Chittagong Cantonment on June 1, 1981 two days after the assassination of the then president Ziaur Rahman.

His elder brother Abul Mansur Ahmed filed the case on February 28, 1995.
