With November being the month of music, kicking it off with Bangladesh Music Week set the perfect tone. The presence of famous bands like Chirkutt and Shironamhin livened up the audience, while throughout the rest of the times, professionals sat in conferences and held workshops to enhance and highlight the Bangladeshi music industry on a more global scale. With the ultimate objective of connecting music professionals from the world over, the first Bangladesh Music Week was held on the 6th and 7th of this month, under the aegis of Norway-Bangladesh Music Cooperation.
