

Last session of teachers training held in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

The second and last session of teachers' training under this year's "English in Schools-EIS" programme aiming to improve English language skills was held at a restaurant in South Khulshi area of Chittagong city yesterday.

Fifty teachers from 25 schools of Chittagong city participated in the programme. Effective techniques for learning and teaching English language and motivating students were demonstrated in the training.

In Chittagong, the first session under the EIS programme, a joint initiative of The Daily Star and Robi Axiata Ltd, was held on August 28.

Under the EIS project, 25 selected schools in four regions -- Chittagong, Sylhet, Khulna and Rajshahi -- receive free copies of The Daily Star every Monday which contain English in Schools page, designed for the students to help them learn English language.

Shireen Hasan, founder executive director of X-cel and her team conducted the training where Shahada Akter, school inspector, Directorate of Secondary and Higher Education, Chittagong, was also present.

Death anniversary

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Today is the 44th death anniversary of two Liberation War martyrs, Dr Azharul Haque and Dr Humayun Kabir.

Dr Azharul Haque and Dr Humayun Kabir

Azhar, an assistant surgeon and Humayun, an intern physician at Dhaka Medical College Hospital, were brutally killed on this day by Al-Badr for secretly providing treatment to many wounded freedom fighters.

Al-Badr took the doctors from their Hatirpool residence and murdered them after inhuman torture. Their bodies were recovered from a ditch near Notre Dame College the next day.

On the occasion, a Qurankhwani and a doa mahfil will be held at Azimpur old graveyard in the capital after Asr prayers, says a press release.

An art competition was held on the TSC premises.

At a discussion, speakers said Taher's execution was a cold-blooded murder, and it was the state's responsibility to try his "murderers".

Dr Anwar Hossain, younger brother of Taher and professor of Dhaka University, delivered the keynote speech titled "Phirey Dekha 7 November" (Looking back at November 7).

Taher was hanged for mutiny and treason on July 21, 1976, but in March 2011 the High Court declared the trial illegal and said Zia masterminded the "cold-blooded murder of Taher".

"It is challenging to tackle some of the issues you face in your communities. Do not be afraid to try a different approach. Working with your community on building a positive environment for dispute resolution will require sustained dedication," she said.

The Hunger Project-Bangladesh Country Directory Badiul Alam Majumdar urged all to join hands for resisting violence and demanded stern action against perpetrators.

The peace ambassadors, representatives of different organisations and civil society members, among others, were present.

"If you really love the country and are sincere in suppressing militancy, restore democracy and stop repression and suppression on political parties," he said.

Moudud said BNP and all other parties want to help the government take proper steps so that Bangladesh does not turn into a militant and terrorist state.

BNP Vice Chairman Abdullah Al Noman chaired the programme where standing committee members Hannan Shah and Jamiruddin Sircar, Vice Chairman Selima Rahman and Bangladesh Kalyan Party chief Syed Mohammad Ibrahim also spoke.

Obituary

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Justice AKM Nurul Islam, a former vice-president of Bangladesh, died of old-age complications at Apollo Hospital in the capital yesterday. He was 92.

He was also a former law minister, former chief election commissioner and former judge of East Pakistan High Court.

He left behind his wife poet Jahanara Arzu, two sons and a daughter. One of his sons Ashfaqul Islam is now a judge of the High Court.

Nurul Islam's body will be taken to the Supreme Court premises today and his namaz-e-janaza will be held there after the Zohr prayers.

He will be buried in their family graveyard in Manikganj today, said Khurshid Alam Khan, a Supreme Court lawyer and editor of Dhaka Law Report.

ONE YEAR INTO PROF SHAFIUL'S KILLING RU teachers protest charge sheet delay

RU CORRESPONDENT

Rajshahi University Teachers Association will be holding a rally on the campus today at 10:30am marking a year past the murder of Prof AKM Shafiul Islam and protesting "delay" in investigations since the case's charge sheet is yet to be submitted.

Seven days after her arrest on March 7 by the Detective Branch of police, an assistant section officer of Rajshahi University's (RU) finance and accounts section, Nasrin Akter Reshma, confessed to a court to her involvement in the killing.

Her husband, Abdus Samad Pintu, who is also a Rajshahi Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal leader, and five others were arrested on November 23 by Rapid Action Battalion (Rab), which claimed they admitted to have hacked the sociology professor near his house in Rajshahi's Choddopai area following a row centring Reshma.

The six, including Ariful Islam alias Manik, Sabuj Sheikh, Sirajul Islam alias Kalu, Al Mamun and Ibrahim Khalil alias "Tokai" Babu, denied the murder charges before Rajshahi courts two days later.

Rab also named Anwar Hossain Uzzal, convener of Rajshahi unit Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal, as the planner. Police sources believe he fled to India.

Inspector Rezaus Sadik, who took over the case on October 25, blames the changes in investigation officers for the "delay" and hopes to submit the charge sheet by this month.

The case was transferred to DB under Inspector Ashiqur Rahman on January 21 after RU Registrar
