KIBRIA MURDER CASE

Testimony recording resumes

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Moulvibazar

The Sylhet Speedy Trial Tribunal yesterday started the fourth day of recording testimonies of witnesses in the former finance minister Shah AMS Kibria murder case after being deferred twice.

Witnesses Mizanur Rahman and Nazrul Islam, residents of Habiganj town, gave their depositions before the court.

All of the accused but former state minister Lutfozzaman Babar and suspended Sylhet city mayor Ariful Haque Chowdhury were present in the dock.

The then opposition lawmaker and Awami League leader Kibria and four others were killed in a grenade attack on a rally in Habiganj on January 27, 2005.

Four Dhaka University officials suspended

For leaking pvt medical college exam results

DU CORRESPONDENT

The Dhaka University authorities have suspended four of its officials over leaking the results of professional examinations in private medical colleges affiliated with DU before their announcement.

The suspension came on Tuesday night after proctorial team member Shahadat Hossen, examination control office security guard Abul Hossen, section officer Ranjan Chowdhury, and staff Bidhan Chandra Roy were handed over to Shahbagh police, Proctor M Amzad Ali confirmed to The Daily Star yesterday.

A case was also filed against them and further actions would be taken after investigation, he added.

Policy actions must to boost labour market for women

Swedish dy minister tells Bangladesh Development Forum before leaving Dhaka

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Policy actions are most urgent to strengthen the labour market for women and promote decent works that benefit women, Swedish Deputy Minister for Employment Irene Wennemo has said.

She made the call while addressing a session on gender and economic development of the Bangladesh Development Forum held in Dhaka on November 15-16.

Wennemo left Bangladesh on Tuesday following a three-day visit to the country.

In her speech, she emphasised women's increased participation in the labour market and women's economic empowerment, said a Swedish embassy press release.

Later, Wennemo visited the Centre of Excellence for the Bangladesh Apparel Industry training centre funded by Sweden and H&M through ILO.

Wennemo along with Swedish Ambassador Johan Frisell and representatives from H&M visited an Ashulia garment factory, "Natural Denims".

She also visited Swedish-funded "Bangladesh Global Deal Project".

Ctg cocaine haul accused gets bail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Saiful Islam, an official of the Clearing and Forwarding (C&F) agent firm, was released on bail from jail yesterday afternoon.

Saiful was accused in the case filed over seizure of liquid cocaine from a container in Chittagong Port. He was arrested from the city's Agrabad Commercial area on July 14.

On June 6, being informed by police, Customs Intelligence officials sealed off a container at the port, which arrived from Bolivia on May 8, containing 107 barrels of sunflower oil.

Upon testing, on June 8, liquid cocaine was detected in the sample barrel no. 96. A case was filed with Bandar Police Station on June 27 and six persons have been arrested so far in this regard.

Youth hacked dead in Tongi, 2 held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gazipur

A youth was hacked to death by miscreants following previous enmity in Mokterbari Sarak area of Tongi, outside the capital, on Tuesday.

The deceased -- Sajjad Hossain Badal, 18, of the area, was a drug addict, said his uncle Ramzan Ali.

Around six youths -- including Saddam, Zakir, Sabuj and Naem -- attacked them while they were going to a nearby rehabilitation centre and hacked Sajjad, Ramzan added. Later, Sajjad died at Uttara Regent Hospital at night. Police arrested Sabuj, 22, and Naem, 21.

brother, her helper put her on a launch to Manikganj. From there she got on a bus to Gabtoli, but she was dropped off in Savar as she did not have money for fare, said the girl. "I did not know where I was going. All I wanted was to get far away from that place," she said.

"That place is horrible and they whipped me when I refused to do the things they told me to," she said in tears. "Many others like me do not want to be there, but are forced to be prostitutes."

When the hospital authorities called police to hand over the girl, she was frightened. "I do not trust the police. They provide security for the brothel," she said.

Md Mazharul Islam, sub-inspector of Savar Model Police Station, said they are trying to find the girl's father.

Daulatdia, the biggest brothel in the country, is situated about 100km west of the capital in Rajbari.

Man held with 9.5kg of gold at Ctg airport

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Customs Intelligence officials seized 82 gold bars, weighing 9.5kg, worth around Tk 4.5 crore from a man at Shah Amanat International Airport in Chittagong yesterday evening.

Md Saiful Alam, 46, of Chittagong's Raazan, arrived at the airport from Muscat by a flight of Oman Air.

Acting on a tip-off, the officials intercepted him around 6:40pm while he was crossing customs lounge area on completion of immigration formalities.

After searching his body, they found the gold bars kept in two hidden clothes-made belts tied to his waist, said officials.
