

Confiscate properties of war criminals

Ekatturer Ghatak Dalal Nirmul Committee urges govt
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An anti-war crimes platform yesterday called for confiscation of all properties of the convicted war criminals and distribution of the wealth among the families of insolvent freedom fighters and rape victims of the 1971 Liberation War.

Ekatturer Ghatak Dalal Nirmul Committee said that for this, the government had to enact a law like the "War Victims Compensation Act of Zimbabwe".

Addressing a press briefing at Dhaka Reporters Unity, the committee leaders said the government should try political parties and forces involved in war crimes and confiscate their properties, too.

"It is a shame for the nation that those who committed war crimes amassed wealth at home and abroad, while the children of freedom fighters did not get due education," said Shyamoli Nasrin Chowdhury, widow of martyred intellectual Dr Alim Chowdhury.

Acting president of the committee, Shahriar Kabir, said the properties of Jamaat-e-Islami including its business firms, factories, NGOs, and educational and social institutions should come under the government's control.

"These institutions have to give compensation as well," he said in a written statement.

Condemning Pakistan for expressing concern at the execution of war criminals, he said the government should launch diplomatic procedure to get due compensation from Pakistan.

Shaheed Dr Milon Day today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Shaheed Dr Milon Day will be observed today marking the 25th death anniversary of Dr Shamsul Alam Khan Milon who was killed by armed men of the then autocrat HM Ershad.

Dr Milon, then joint secretary of Bangladesh Medical Association, was gunned down near TSC of Dhaka University in 1990, in the then regime's attempt to suppress a mass movement.

However, his death gave impetus to the anti-autocracy

Security Worries Home ministry decides to cut visitors at Secretariat

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The home ministry has decided to reduce the number of visitors at the Bangladesh Secretariat on security grounds.

In a letter, the ministry requested all ministries and divisions not to issue passes to visitors without confirming their identities.

The letter noted that security threats are heightening at the country's administrative hub, as passes have been issued without verification of the visitor's identity.

Raise voice for int'l climate court

MPs urge govt to place this demand at Paris summit
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Citing that developed countries hardly deliver on the promises they make during the UN climate conference, the parliament members yesterday said Bangladesh should raise the issue of setting up an international climate court to establish climate justice.

Hasanul Haq Inu, the information minister, expected the mass media to be beside the government to realise the demands it will raise at the upcoming Paris summit.

Whether climate change will make vulnerable countries more vulnerable or not will depend on the success of the Paris summit, said Dr Ahsan Uddin, executive director of the Centre for Global Change, presenting the keynote speech at a seminar.

It was organised by the all-party parliamentary group at Jatiya Sangsad Bhaban.

Dr Ahsan said Bangladesh should raise its voice for a legally binding agreement that would help all developed countries obey the agreement in the future.

Developed countries committed $100 billion in 2009 but have given only $10 billion so far, while the world's expenditure for arms has increased by $70 billion in the same period, said Hasan Mahmud, chief of the parliamentary committee on environment and forest ministry.

Former food minister Dr Abdur Razzak said many members of the Bangladeshi delegation remained busy shopping other than trying to negotiate for the country.

Drawing on her experiences of negotiations, Dr Dipu Moni, chairman of the
