

Develop IT, communication skills to prosper

Speakers urge youths at 3rd New Generations Seminar of Rotary Club of Dhaka Buriganga

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a Rotary seminar yesterday called upon the new generation to develop communication skills along with expertise in information technology to secure jobs and make progress in life.

They also asked youths to be resolute in achieving goals and to practice perseverance to attain success in life.

The inaugural session of the 3rd New Generations Seminar 2015 titled "Be a Change Maker" was organised by the Rotary Club of Dhaka Buriganga at Nabab Nawab Ali Chowdhury Senate Bhaban in Dhaka University.

Around 300 Rotarians, Rotaractors, students and guests participated.

The seminar was on tackling graduate unemployment focusing on the need for industry and academia partnership, access to markets based on business strategies of entrepreneurship enterprise development, and future leaders aspiring to be changemakers.

Water Resources Minister Anisul Islam Mahmud said, "Some people dream and work to realise it while some only dream but do not try to achieve it."

Underscoring the importance of mentors, he said with the presence of good guidance, it becomes easy to take the

Females' marriageable age to remain 18: Chumki

UNB, Dhaka

State Minister for Women and Children Affairs Meher Afroze Chumki yesterday said the government is not going to lower the minimum age of marriage for females from 18.

"Child marriage will not be allowed and the (minimum) age limit of marriage for females will remain at 18," she said.

Chumki was addressing a roundtable on building grassroots network for women empowerment at the office of the daily Bhorer Kagoj, organised by the daily and Unnayan Shahojogy Team (UST) in association with Paz Y Desarrolo.

Chumki also urged the male members of society to shun child marriage. Imran Hossain Bhuiyan, a lecturer of Development Studies at Dhaka University, presented the concept paper.

Bhorer Kagoj Editor Shyamal Dutta and UN Women country representative to Bangladesh Christine Hunter also spoke on the occasion. The speakers also demanded women election commissioners in the Election Commission.

robbery bid. Sensing danger, the criminals exploded four crude bombs there and attempted to rob the station for the second time.

The bomb explosion wounded three villagers -- Ziaur Rahman, Razu Ahmed and Anisur Rahman. They were undergoing treatment at Dinajpur Medical College Hospital.

Later, the villagers chased the robber gang and caught three of them in Raniganj village and beat them up mercilessly.

On information, Dinajpur Sadar police rushed to the spot, rescued the robbers and took them to the medical college hospital, where Sabbir died from his injuries later.

Police recovered three pistols and five bullets from their possession, said Ruhul Amin, superintendent of Dinajpur police.

A robbery case was filed with Dinajpur Sadar Police Station.

around three hours after he had gone missing, said Gangni police.

Dr Taposh Kumar Sarker of Kushtia Medical College Hospital, where Antar was declared dead, said the boy was suffocated.

Sabuj Ali, 19, who is an accused in several criminal cases, including snatching, might have committed the crime, said Officer-in-Charge Akram Hossain.

Antar's uncle Serajul Islam filed a murder case accusing Sabuj, who has been on the run since the incident, he added.

Meanwhile, agitating villagers set fire to one of the houses of Sabuj's family in protest against the incident, the OC said.
