Deshi Dosh celebrates winter and victory

Winter is all about foggy mornings, date-palm juice and rice cakes. December is also the month when we celebrate our historic victory.

Keeping this in mind, Deshi Dosh has organised 'Sheeth O Bijoye Uthshob 2015', which focuses on a new set of fashionable designs, suitable for both winter and the celebration of Victory Day. The festival was inaugurated by Rashed Khan Menon, honourable Minister of Tourism and Civil Aviation, at the Bashundhara City Shopping Mall on 3 December.

Deshi Dosh is a conglomerate of ten different fashion houses based not only on concepts of business but also to uphold the cultural heritage of Bangladesh.

After the inauguration, a fashion show choreographed by model Tumpa showcased the new lines of Nipun, Deshal, Bibiana, Kay Kraft, Anjans, Nogordola, Sada Kalo, Rang, Banglar Mela, and Srishty.

The 'Sheeth O Bijoye Uthshob' will continue till 30 December, 2015 from 10am to 8pm at Bashundhara City Shopping Mall.
