Public awareness must for preventing drug abuse

Says home boss while releasing anti-drug awareness movie Swarga Theke Narak
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government cannot win the war against drugs unless the people become aware of its grave consequences, said Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan yesterday.
 The law is very tough and it is being implemented but the government is having a hard time containing drug abuse, the minister said at a press conference held at hotel Sonargaon in the capital on the occasion of release of an anti-drug awareness movie.
 The film titled "Swarga Theke Narak" (from heaven to hell) was produced by anti-drug campaigner MANAS and directed by its Founding Chairman Dr Arup Ratan Choudhury.
 Arup said about 70 lakh people of the country are addicted to drugs whereas over 80 percent of them are young people, some of them are even children, and half of the addicted youths are involved in some sort of criminal activities.
 Information Secretary Mortuza Ahmed said he would make arrangements so that the film is screened in all theatres across the country and urged electronic media houses to broadcast the film as a part of their corporate social responsibility.
 About today's Victory Day celebrations, Asaduzzaman said law enforcers and the intelligence departments are "very alert" about ensuring safety and security.

Don't use photos

 every publicity material, which contains photos of party leaders other than those of Bangabandhu and Hasina.
 The ruling party gave the directive as such publicity materials have been widely used for self-promotion ahead of the national days, which encourages extortion by party men, said AL insiders.

Elaborate events chalked

 The day, a public holiday, will be heralded by a 31-gun salute at dawn at the National Parade Ground.
 The president and the prime minister, followed by other individuals and organisations, will place wreaths at the Jatiya Smriti Shoudho in Savar at dawn.
 Terming the day the greatest pride for the Bangalee Nation to celebrate Victory Day today, Sheikh Hasina, in her message, called upon all to come forward and uphold Bangladesh's development and democratic process.
 Abdul Hamid asked all to contribute more from their respective positions to realise the spirit and objectives of the Liberation War.
 The ruling Awami League will bring out a colourful Victory Day procession this afternoon. The rally will start from Suhrawardy Udyan and end at Bangabandhu Bhaban at Dhanmondi-32.
 BNP will also bring out a Victory Day procession from its Nayapaltan office. It will end at Malibagh.
 The Ministry of Liberation War Affairs along with Bangladesh Police jointly organised a three-day long exhibition with 71 photos depicting the brutality of the Pakistani occupation forces on the people of Bangladesh during the war.
 Bangla Academy has organised a discussion and cultural programme at 4:00pm.

Tarique was involved in Aug 21

 in presence of BNP leader Tarique Rahman."
 Hawa Bhaban was the office of BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia, the then prime minister.
 The plan was also worked out at the government residence of then BNP deputy minister Abdus Salam Pintu, also an accused in the cases.
 After being treated at home and abroad, Suranjit, as an MP, placed a condemnation motion in parliament against the attack, but the then members of the four-party ruling alliance opposed it.
 Suranjit said the then prime minister, Khaleda Zia, neither visited the victims nor expressed sympathy, adding that it proved that the attack was sponsored by the then government.
 The on-duty law enforcement agencies around the rally were busy saving the attackers and letting them flee, while firing teargas on the victims, said the witness.
 Suranjit was later cross-examined by the lawyers of 19 fugitive accused, including Tarique. BNP leader Lutfozzaman Babar and 23 others are now in jail and another eight are on bail. Earlier, 202 prosecution witnesses, out of 491, including the complainant, testified in court.
